

SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FROM: Supervisor John Tavaglione

SUBMITTAL DATE: March 22, 2011

SUBJECT: Support for Establishment of the 7th District Court of Appeal, State of California.

RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board of Supervisors adopt Resolution No. 2011-83 in support for the establishment of the 7th District Court of Appeal, in and by the State of California.

BACKGROUND: The proposed 7th District Court of Appeals would be established with judicial offers currently assigned to the 4th District Court of Appeal and would consist of courts and judicial officers from the Counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, and Inyo. Establishing the 7th District Court of Appeals, would result in improved productivity, is cost neutral to the state general fund, and will expedite the review of cases upon appeal.

RESOLUTION NO. 2011-83

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE IN SUPPORT OF THE CREATION OF THE SEVENTH DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL

WHEREAS, the County of Riverside is the fastest growing county in California, and is part of the region known as Inland Southern California, one of the fastest growing regions in the United States;

WHEREAS, the State of California's Appellate Court System currently consists of six Districts which are further divided into divisions, and the Counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, and Inyo are currently served by Division Two of the Fourth District Court of Appeal;

WHEREAS, the Counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, and Inyo are home to approximately 4.4 million people;

WHEREAS, the County of Riverside supports the establishment of a new Seventh District Court of Appeal, which would be formed by removing Riverside, San Bernardino, and Inyo Counties from the existing Fourth District Court of Appeal; and

WHEREAS, the Counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, and Inyo would be served by the newly formed Seventh District Court of Appeal.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERISDE, in regular session assembled on March 22, 2011, does hereby resolve and support the establishment of the 7th District Court of Appeal by the State of California, in the County of Riverside.
