

Board of Supervisors
WORKSHOP

April 21, 2003
9:30 a.m.

THE RIVERSIDE NATIONAL CEMETERY AND VICINITY
LONG-RANGE PLAN

Speakers: Paul Adkins, Chairman, National Cemetery Support Committee
B Gen Stan Brown, USAF (Retired), Chairman, RNC Memorials & Monuments
Commission
Bill Densmore, Director, Department of Veterans' Services
Stephen Jorgensen, Director, Riverside National Cemetery

Invited

Guests: (available to answer questions): Bob Miller, Director, March Field Museum
Dave van Buskirk, Chairman, Memorial Honor Detail
Cindy Roth, Riverside Chamber of Commerce

I. Introduction: Bill Densmore

II. Riverside National Cemetery: Stephen Jorgensen

- History
- Development to date
- Current and anticipated activity levels
- Memorial Honor Detail services

III. The National Cemetery's Long-Range Plan: Paul Adkins

- Background of the Cemetery Support Committee and Memorials & Monuments Commission
- The need for a long-range plan: National Cemetery to National Shrine
- Accomplishments to date: Groundwork for the future

IV. Riverside National Cemetery and Vicinity - The Vision: General Stan Brown

- The updated long-range plan
- Expansion of Riverside National Cemetery Infrastructure
- Veterans' Theme Park
- The military complex as economic engine
- The opportunity for partnerships

V. Summary & Conclusions: General Brown

3003 068 13 00 3: 51

RECEIVED