

SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

301B

FROM: Executive Director

SUBMITTAL DATE: June 17, 2003

SUBJECT: Approval for the authorization to extend existing Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation Program Contracts with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)

RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board of Commissioners authorize the Executive Director to execute contracts with HUD to extend existing Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation Program contracts.

JUSTIFICATION: The Housing Authority of the County of Riverside currently has multi-year Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation contracts with HUD. These contracts with HUD are scheduled to expire between calendar years 2003 through 2007. Per HUD Notice 2001-13, HUD has allowed a one (1) year extension on these contracts, which will allow continued affordability to currently assisted participants.

The Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation program is administered by the Housing Authority and benefits low and moderate income individuals in the unincorporated areas and participating cities. The entire cost of operating the Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation program is offset by revenue from HUD, and is pursuant to governmental cost accounting guidelines.
