

SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

819A

FROM: DPSS – Community Action Partnership of Riverside County

SUBMITTAL DATE:
3/6/06

SUBJECT: Proclaiming March 19 – 25, 2006 as Mediation Week.

RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board proclaim March 19 – 25, 2006 as Mediation Week and set the date of Tuesday, March 14, 2006 to present a proclamation to recognize the trained volunteer mediators serving the Dispute Resolution Center.

BACKGROUND: Governor Schwarzenegger has proclaimed March 19 – 25, 2006 as Mediation Week. To raise public awareness of the benefits derived from mediation, Community Action Partnership of Riverside County (CAP Riverside) seeks to inform the public that mediation is a process of voluntary conflict resolution through communication between the parties with assistance to reach a mutually acceptable agreement. Mediation is a recognized and successful method of resolving disputes, both in and out of the judicial system. CAP Riverside has more than 100 trained volunteer mediators, including attorneys, educators, mental health, human resource professionals, grassroots people, and students.

TO HONOR & RECOGNIZE

Mediation Week

March 19-25 2006

Whereas, the Governor of the State of California will recognize March 19-25, 2006 as Mediation Week; and

Whereas, conflict is a common normal event in our society, and our citizens both need and seek forums for the resolution of conflict, both in and out of our judicial system, and

Whereas, in an effort to resolve conflict amicably, improve relations among our people and within neighborhoods and families, and relieve the burden of litigation which is overwhelming our judiciary, many of our citizens have turned to mediation, with resulting social economic, and personal benefits; and

Whereas, mediation is a private and voluntary process for people in dispute whereby a neutral third party assists the disputants in mutually resolving their conflict by helping them to communicate; and

Whereas, in recognition of Mediation Week, the Community Action Partnership of Riverside County and its Dispute Resolution Center, seek to raise public awareness of the benefits derived from mediation, and encouraging educational programs; and

Whereas, dispute resolution services help to relieve the burden of litigation that overwhelms our judicial system and to improve relations among people, within neighborhoods and families and between consumers and businesses.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Riverside County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims the week of March 19-25, 2006 as Mediation Week and urges all citizens to settle their disputes through mediation.
