On May 1, 2004, Diamond Valley Radiology was sold to California Imaging and Diagnostic Medical Group, Inc. Diamond Valley Radiology Medical Center did not notify Exclusive Care of their sale to California Imaging and Diagnostic Medical Group, Inc. nor did California Imaging and Diagnostic Medical Group request an assignment of the contract upon purchase. There was no change in the group's operations or physicians. During a periodic review of contracts, it was determined there had been a change in the legal ownership of the group. This Assignment and Delegation implements the legal change of ownership and reflects California Imaging and Diagnostic Medical Group Inc. as a participant in the Exclusive Care Provider Network under terms similar to other comparable providers under contract.
