WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT BOARD
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

118B

FROM: General Manager-Chief Engineer

SUBMITTAL DATE:
June 6, 2006

SUBJECT: Resolution In Commendation of Sandi Henry

RECOMMENDED MOTION:

The Board approve the subject resolution and thereby bestow upon Sandi Henry the District's highest level of commendation for the unparalleled dedication and professional service she has provided to Riverside County for the past 26 years.

BACKGROUND:

On March 31, 2006, Sandi Henry retired from the Riverside County Flood Control and Water Conservation District after providing more than 26 years of loyal, dedicated and conscientious service to the citizens of Riverside County, 10 of those years with the District.

As noted in the Resolution, Sandi served as the District's Chief of Finance and will be long remembered for her professionalism, honesty and dedication to the District, her firm but fair leadership and management style, and her genuine care and concern for co-workers and the public.

Resolution in Commendation

SANDI HENRY

WHEREAS, on March 31, 2006, Sandi Henry retired from the Riverside County Flood Control and Water Conservation District after providing more than 26 years of loyal, dedicated and conscientious service to the citizens of Riverside County, 10 of those years with the District; and

WHEREAS, during her tenure with the District, Sandi served in a variety of positions, from Payroll Supervisor to her most notable position as Chief of the Finance Division; and

WHEREAS, in the capacity as Chief of Finance, she performed a multitude of duties overseeing and directing all financial operations, including financial planning, accounting and purchasing; budget preparation and administration; payroll processing; and internal personnel functions; and

WHEREAS, during her term as Chief of Finance, she skillfully guided the District's migration from its Integrated Financial and Administrative Solution (IFAS) accounting system to the People Soft financial accounting system, and did so by undertaking a major organizational restructuring of the Finance Division, including a staff increase from 10 to over 21 employees; and

WHEREAS, as Chief of Finance, she was also a valued member of the District's Senior Management Team, bringing to that group a viewpoint founded on the highest moral character, exceptional loyalty to the District, and great respect for her fellow employees; and

WHEREAS, Sandi will be long remembered for her professionalism, honesty and dedication to the District, her firm but fair leadership and management style, and her genuine care and concern for co-workers and the public.

NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved on this 6th day of June 2006, that Sandi Henry is hereby bestowed with the District's highest level of commendation for the unparalleled dedication and professional service she has provided to Riverside County for the past 26 years.
