BACKGROUND: In 2005, the Riverside Arts Council launched InlandArtc.com a major interactive website funded by the James Irvine Foundation. This website has become the single most effective marketing tool employed by the art community. The grant from the James Irvine Foundation is in its final year and the Riverside Arts Council is seeking outside funding to continue this resource that is utilized not only by the arts and cultural community but the general public as a whole. I respectfully request support from the Board of Supervisors for this use of 5th District Community Improvement Designation funds.
