

SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FROM: Supervisor John Tavaglione

SUBMITTAL DATE:
April 3, 2007

SUBJECT: Dedication and Naming of the Spay and Neuter Clinic for the Riverside City/County Animal Shelter Replacement Project

RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board of Supervisors: (1) Dedicate the Spay and Neuter Clinic for the Riverside City/County Animal Shelter Replacement Project; and (2) Name the Clinic the Pat Merritt Pet Wellness Center.

BACKGROUND: Pat Merritt dedicated more than thirty years of her life to the animals of Riverside County. When the Riverside City/County Animal Shelter was designed, Pat Merritt was a driving force to ensure a low-cost spay/neuter clinic would be part of the project. Today, the Department of Animal Services is designing a replacement project that will include a pet spay/neuter and wellness center. Such a clinic will realize many of the lifelong dreams of this dedicated volunteer and animal advocate. In recognition of her enduring service it is recommended that this new clinic be named in honor of Pat Merritt.
