The Moreno Valley Independence Day Parade and Family FunFest is one of the largest and most honored Independence Day celebrations in the Inland Empire. The all day festivities are free to the public and include a concert in the park as well as an award winning fireworks show.

The March Field Air Museum preserves aviation history while commemorating our military. This sponsorship supports their fundraising efforts to move forward in their mission.

The Banning House of Hope provides community support for women assisting them in rebuilding their lives and reestablishing their families.
