SUBJECT: AMENDMENT #2 TO THE AGREEMENTS
WITH ALTERNATIVES TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND SHELTER FROM THE STORM

PAGE: 2

BACKGROUND:

On August 23, 2005, Agenda No 3.69, and on February 7, 2006, Agenda No. 3.29, the Board of Supervisors approved the agreements with Alternatives to Domestic Violence (ADV) and Shelter from the Storm (SFTS) with a maximum reimbursable amount of $243,226 and $131,832.

On July 1, 2008, Agenda No 3.69, the Board of Supervisors approved Amendment No.1 with Alternatives to Domestic Violence (ADV) and Shelter from the Storm (SFTS) with a maximum reimbursable amount of $304,032 and $164,790 for the period of July 1, 2007 through September 30, 2008 respectively. We are requesting an extension of the current agreements to December 31, 2008 to continue services while the Request for Proposal process is completed and new contracts are awarded.

ADV provides domestic abuse advocacy services to CalWORKs applicants and recipients of the Central and Western portions of Riverside County. Service under this contract includes case management, individual counseling, referrals to medical and social services, relocation assistance and emergency shelter, parenting programs, temporary restraining order assistance, court accompaniment and life skills training which include financial planning, anger management, and coping with stress.

SFTS provides emergency shelter and comprehensive community-based services for victims of domestic violence in eastern Riverside County. SFTS assists DPSS in the identification and support of CalWORKs clients who are victims of abuse. Service under this contract includes domestic violence advocacy to screen, identify and provide appropriate referrals to CalWORKs applicants and recipients who are victims of domestic violence.

FINANCIAL IMPACT:

The Contracts will be funded with Federal, State, and County Funds. Total contract cost and revenue were included in the FY08/09 budget.
