SUBJECT: Fourth District use of Community Improvement Designation Funds

PAGE: 2

BACKGROUND:

The Desert Blind and Handicapped Association (DBHA) empowers the blind, visually impaired and/or physically disabled senior population to develop and live independently and to their fullest potential for as long as possible by providing a range of valuable services, such as transportation, Wellness telephone checks, assistance with writing letters, picking up mail, assist with minor home repair, and resource information.

We would like to use Fourth District Community Improvement funds to assist this organization in providing services to our disabled population.
