Supervisor Roy Wilson
Fourth District Use of Community Improvement Designation Funds
May 5, 2009

BACKGROUND:

The Pinnacle Fund is a non-profit group associated that provides financial assistance to the schools within the Palm Springs Unified School District. The focus areas are fine arts and technology-programs and projects that give students the technological skills and creative capacity they need to succeed in the 21st century classroom and life beyond graduation

We would like to use Fourth District Community Improvement Designation funds to join this organization, local businesses, foundations, students, teachers and overall community in enhancing the educational experience of students.
