Form 11, Continued

Healing Horses works with kids that have special needs, especially autism, CP and Down's Syndrome. The organization works at improving the child's ability to function in their homes, schools and communities by increasing their language, reducing negative behaviors, increasing core muscle strength, improving relationships with peers, parents, teachers and caregivers, peer play, joint attention, self care and overall self-esteem and independence.

We would like to use Fourth District Community Improvement funds to assist these organizations.
