BACKGROUND: The California Creativity Association is seeking transportation, meals and housing funds for JFK Elementary School's current regional and state champion Destination ImagiNation (D.I.) team to compete in the Global Finals for 2010. This program is the world's largest problem solving program for kids, and is celebrating 26 years of teaching young people process based skills such as team work, critical and creative thinking, research and presentation skills, time and resource management and problem solving.

I request that the Board of Supervisors approve a contribution of $1,000 to support California Creativity Association – Destination ImagiNation (D.I.).

BOB BUSTER
1st District Supervisor
