Form 11: Probation, Parole, and Community Supervision Week
June 7, 2010

BACKGROUND (Continued)

It is befitting to recognize the efforts of our sworn employees with the Probation Department who provide important services to the community by maintaining the safety and security of our neighborhoods in the prevention, rehabilitation, and treatment of Juvenile and Adult offenders.

TO PROCLAIM
PROBATION, PAROLE AND COMMUNITY SUPERVISION WEEK

July 18 – 24, 2010

Whereas the Riverside County Probation Department is an essential and integral part of the criminal justice system; and,

Whereas the Probation Department sworn professionals uphold the law with impartiality and integrity and work diligently toward the rehabilitation of probationers, while at the same time recognizing the right of the public to be safe-guarded from criminal activity; and,

Whereas the Probation Department sworn professionals are responsible for providing the Court with information for offender sentencing, enforcing Court orders through supervision of adult and juvenile offenders in our communities, and the detention and treatment of juvenile offenders; and,

Whereas Probation Officers and Probation Corrections Officers promote crime prevention, intervention and victim advocacy, and restorative justice; and,

Whereas Probation Officers and Probation Corrections Officers assist offenders to gain skills, get treatment and community support for the opportunity that will enable them to live successful crime free lives. These officers can also recognize when an offender may not be ready or able to make the changes necessary to ensure public safety; and,

Whereas Probation Officers and Probation Corrections Officers are trained professionals who change lives through services and referrals for criminal offenders, their families and victims of crime; and,

Whereas Probation Officers and Probation Corrections Officers protect victims and provide them with necessary services; and,

Whereas Probation Officers and Probation Corrections Officers work in partnership with other community agencies and public service organizations in such valuable programs as the Violence Against Women Program, Gang Task Force and the Sexual Offenders Task Force, Youthful Offender Program; and,

Whereas the American Probation and Parole Association, has declared July 18 through July 24, 2010, as National American Probation, Parole, and Community Supervision Week, and support a Second Chance; and

NOW, THEREFORE, THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, in regular session, July 13, 2010 hereby proclaims the week of July 18 through July 24, 2010 to be National American Probation, Parole and Community Supervision Week. We encourage all citizens to honor the Probation Officers and Probation Corrections Officers in recognition of their contributions to our community safety and their outstanding achievements in the prevention, and rehabilitation and treatment of criminal offenders.
