Since then, the Probation Department has reapplied for the grant and has received multiple year awards. This is a new application for another three years of funding with the first year starting October 1, 2010 through September 30, 2011.

The goals of the specialized domestic violence unit program include ensuring a high level of structure and control through intensive supervision for offenders to assist them in maintaining compliance with court orders and affecting positive behavior changes through treatment. Throughout the course of supervision, sworn staff hold offenders accountable and improve community safety through immediate action when a violation of terms of probation or new offense occurs. The grant provides funding which allows sworn staff to maintain reduced caseloads, a maximum of 40 caseloads per full time Probation Officer. This ensures weekly contact and monitoring, and provides the means for individual treatment plans for offenders. Additionally, victims will also receive support and protection through special referrals for services and interventions.

The grant award is for $100,000 for 2010/11, with an additional $33,333 required cash or in-kind match. The award and match are included in the department's 2010/11 budget. This grant will continue funding for one (1) FTE Senior Probation Officer and one (1) FTE Deputy Probation Officer.
