BACKGROUND:

The Criminal Restitution Compact Program funded by VCGCB is designed to provide financial assistance to victims of violent crimes for losses incurred as a result of the crime.

In the State of California, every offender convicted of a felony or misdemeanor is required to pay a restitution fine. All restitution fines paid by offenders go to the State Restitution Fund that supports the Victims of Crime Compensation Program (VCP) and is administered by VCGCB. The Restitution Fund through VCP provides financial assistance to victims of violent crimes for losses incurred as a result of the crime.

In order to improve California's criminal restitution system, increase the imposition rate of criminal restitution fines and orders, ensure financial stability to the Restitution Fund, and provide the county with a criminal restitution resource, the VCGCB approached the Riverside County District Attorney's Office to enter into a criminal restitution compact. In late 2006, the District Attorney's Office entered into a criminal restitution compact agreement with the VCGCB.

The Criminal Restitution Compact grant award funds two Paralegal positions and a Legal Support Assistant. These positions ensure that restitution fines are imposed on all convicted offenders and that restitution orders are imposed in all appropriate cases involving a victim who has filed a legitimate claim with VCGCB. As Restitution specialists, these funded positions are an invaluable criminal restitution resource to the County.

Funded staff members serve as a training and support resource for deputy district attorneys, judges, court staff and probation officers, as well as conduct restitution outreach to the public, local non-profit organizations and local community agencies.

Riverside County District Attorney's Office continues to ensure that restitution fines are imposed on all convicted offenders and that restitution orders are imposed in all appropriate cases involving a victim who has filed a claim with the VCGCB.

The grant award and resolution have been reviewed and approved as to form by County Counsel.
