BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION:

Mr. Layne Arthur, Vice President of Balfour Beatty Construction, is interested in becoming a member of the Workforce Investment Board. Mr. Arthur's company depends on having a highly skilled workforce to support its ongoing projects in the Inland Empire. Technology is an emerging critical factor in today's construction sites. As technological advancements and energy efficiencies continue to enhance productivity and quality, construction industry workers must have the training and proficiency necessary to successfully complete projects. Mr. Arthur believes his awareness of current and emerging requirements for his industry can benefit the WIB's goal of preparing jobseekers for current and future industry demands.
