BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION:

Louise Oppenheim, Second Vice-President Wealth Management, Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, has expressed an interest in becoming a Private Sector Representative for the Workforce Investment Board in District IV. Ms. Oppenheim is currently a financial advisor for Morgan Stanley Smith Barney and has been in this profession for twenty-two years and along with her experience as a Personnel Manager, she realizes that education, job skills, interviewing techniques, and a well-crafted resume are important elements in a successful career search. She knows that the Workforce Investment Board (WIB) works to provide these tools to jobseekers as they look for employment with businesses in the Riverside area.

By becoming involved with the WIB, Ms. Oppenheim hopes to address the workforce issues in her industry which are finding people who are self-motivated problem solvers, possess people skills, and have basic computer programs knowledge.
