BACKGROUND: Community Improvement Designation funds will be given to support:

The Janet Goeske Foundation in their mission to serve seniors in the Riverside area; in support of the Unforgettables Foundation in their mission to assist at risk families who are struggling to pay for a proper burial for their child, in support of Riverside AQuettes as they hope to improve equipment for their competitive synchronized swimming club and promote swimming opportunities for youth and adults in Riverside, to assist the Lake Mathews Neighborhood Watch with purchasing neighborhood watch signs for the Lake Mathews community, to support Community Outreach Ministry's 12th Annual Angel Tree Christmas Party. This organization provides food and clothing expenses for 200 local children of prisoners, in support of the Inland Empire Buffalo Soldiers Heritage Association's mission to establish a Buffalo Soldier Memorial at the Riverside National Cemetery, and finally to support Riverside County Regional Medical Center- Festival of Trees Event.
