(Background continued)

The new legislative strategy represents a change in direction from the prior agreements. The "team" approach utilized for several years fulfilled a significant need as Riverside County experienced explosive growth and a myriad of issues that faced a rapidly developing county. Given our current fiscal climate and a retrenchment of services at all levels, it was time for legislative affairs to be re-tooled.

While the proposal retains the same three firms, their roles will change significantly. The Board has previously expressed concern with our state lobbyists over the following issues: lack of direct communication with the Board, lack of appearances within Riverside County, and a lack of general reporting of activities.

Based on these new expectations from the new contract, the Executive Office negotiated with one primary firm to act as our day to day lead advocate in Sacramento, which will provide for a more streamlined chain of command and improved communication. This will address several of the Board's concerns as there will be direct communication between the Board, Executive Office and the lobbyists. The firm of Nielsen-Merksamer was selected for this task as they are a full-service firm that has a wealth of resources that can be called upon if needed. They have years of experience representing municipal governments and the firm was able to meet all of our demands and provide all the necessary services without re-tooling. We are confident that the new arrangement will satisfactorily meet the Board's objectives.

Given the history of the "team approach" there were certain areas of expertise that we have relied upon. Mr. Corbett has been involved with the criminal justice system for a number of years and is quite adept at analysis and advocacy on our behalf. Staff has negotiated with Mr. Corbett and he has agreed to serve as our consultant to follow the AB 109 Public Safety Realignment issue. His contract is reduced to $25,000 annually. Given the sensitive nature of this subject matter to the County, it is prudent to maintain continuity in this policy area.

Bill Duplissea of Cline-Duplissea and Robert Presley will still provide key access and assistance on critical matters as they arise. Their role will be as consultant to assist with various policy matters that require their analysis and access to key officials within the administration. The agreement for their services has been reduced to $50,000 annually.

The new agreements ($224,000) represent a cost savings of $171,000 or 43% from the prior agreements.
