The program is a collaborative effort between the Sheriff's Department, Probation Department, Department of Mental Health, and Riverside County Office of Education (RCOE). The Sheriff's Department provides custody at the Larry D. Smith Correctional Facility and substance abuse treatment through Sheriff's Correctional Counseling personnel. RCOE provides substance abuse education and vocational education training. Mental Health offers a transitional reentry plan for co-occurring adult offenders being released from RSAT, and the Probation Department assigns officers to interface with the courts on behalf of the inmates and monitor them after release.

The grant application requires a 25% match of the total project cost of $247,236 in the amount of $61,809. The Inmate Welfare Fund committee approved funding the required 25% grant match that will be used by the Sheriff's Department to offset salaries and benefits. Any grant awarded will be submitted to the Board of Supervisors for review and approval.
