Summary (continued)

Pursuant to the proposed FY 2014-15 POST Agreement, BCTC will train 33 students in the 24-hour Driving Simulator Instructor course at a cost not to exceed $480.17 per student, for a total course cost of $15,845.61.

BCTC will also train 34 students in the 40-hour Force Option Simulator Instructor course at a cost not to exceed $721.67 per student, for a total course cost of $24,536.78. The maximum amount that the Sheriff's Department can bill POST for this service is $40,382.39. The POST reimbursement revenue is in the Sheriff's Department proposed FY 2014-15 budget. County Counsel has approved the POST Agreement as to form.

Impact on Citizens and Businesses

The two simulator training courses fulfill eight hours of the 24 hours of POST mandated perishable skills training required biennially of California peace officers employed by a POST-certified agency. Training department staff members as instructors saves the cost for independent instructors and keeps the presentation of the courses at the training center, which saves the County student travel and possible lodging expenses.
