BACKGROUND: The donation to Inspire Life Skills Training, Inc. will provide funding for former foster youth from our Fifth district communities towards attending local colleges, employment and life learning skills while living in a safe and secure housing. Rotary Club of Menifee Foundation funds will support their annual program operations and services. The Salvation Army Community Center donation will be used for the Mobile Food Pantry which serves the needy families and seniors of the San Geronio Pass area. The RCRMC Foundation annual donation will support the Riverside County Regional Medical Center by providing comprehensive and vigorous programs of community awareness and education, public relations, equipment and fundraising activities that will benefit patients.
