BACKGROUND: Annual donation will assist the Menifee Valley Community Cupboard to provide homeless and low-income individuals, seniors and families with nutritious food. Family Service Association donation will assist with their annual Christmas in Cabazon event serving low-income families in Cabazon and surrounding communities with gifts/toys and food for the holiday. Annual donation for the St. James Community Food Pantry helps provide food service assistance to needy families in the Perris community. American Heart Association funds will be used to support awareness, educate and community programs for the Empowered to Serve Riverside County project.
