BACKGROUND:

Summary

On June 6, 2014, the U.S. Department of Labor/Employment and Training Agency announced a Job-Driven (JD) National Emergency Grant (NEG), totaling $154,757,547. Among the 32 states selected, California was selected as one the recipients to receive funding.

The State of California Employment Development Department (EDD) was awarded $6,175,000 to serve Title I Workforce Investment Act (WIA) Dislocated Workers in the following counties: Amador; Calaveras; Kern; Mariposa; Merced; Riverside; San Bernardino; San Joaquin; Stanislaus; Tulare; and Tuolumne.

The County of San Bernardino Workforce Development will administer the funds for the Inland Empire Region and will provide funding in the amount of $858,626 to the Riverside County Economic Development Agency (EDA), Workforce Development Division (WDD) to help serve 199 dislocated workers, with an emphasis on long-term unemployed; recipients of unemployment insurance benefits and/or likely to exhaust their benefits, and/or returning veterans. The effective date of this award is February 1, 2015, and will expire June 30, 2016.

Impact on Residents and Businesses

The funds will benefit dislocated workers and their communities by providing employment opportunities in high-demand industries in the Inland Empire. This project will address workforce needs by preparing participants for in-demand jobs through the provision of training, such as apprenticeships, customized, vocational and on-the-job training, as well as the supportive services required to keep individuals in training or employment. The key target industries are: Agriculture, Construction, Energy and Natural Resources, Healthcare, Transportation/Logistics, and Water Technology.

SUPPLEMENTAL:

Additional Fiscal Information

In Fiscal Year 2014/15 through FY 2015/16, there will be a total $858,626 in JDNEG costs. No costs will be incurred to the County and no budget adjustment is required.

Contract History and Price Reasonableness

Riverside County Economic Development Agency/Workforce Development Division has collaborated with County of San Bernardino/Workforce Development on similar initiatives to augment training and employment opportunities to dislocated workers in the Inland Empire. Both Counties strive to bring innovative strategies to Dislocated Workers being displaced by current economic downturns and business layoffs. The cost per participant is $4,315 which is comparable and/or less than other Workforce Investment Act (WIA) programs.
