BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION: Supervisor Washington recommends the appointment of Carol Lee Brady to the Elsinore-Murrieta-Anza Resource Conservation District Board of Directors, candidate determined to be qualified under Pub. Res. Code, § 9352. Ms. Brady is a vineyard owner in Temecula's Wine Country and has a substantial business background, including a degree in Business Management from Pepperdine University and experience in design/engineering/construction firms and both water and electric utilities. She has held leadership positions at Southern California Edison, Mission Power Engineering, and Abbott Vascular, and was campaign manager for the winning candidate in three special district water board elections. With her business and farming background, past leadership positions, and familiarity with local water issues, Ms. Brady understands the local agricultural and resource needs, as well as financial issues and concerns facing special districts.
