BACKGROUND:

Summary (Continued)

The County of Riverside entered into an Energy Services Contract with OpTerra Energy Services and an Equipment Lease/Purchase Agreement (ELPA) with Banc of America Public Capital Corporation (BAPCC) to fund the project. No upfront capital was required to perform the project. The project is self-supporting in that the savings generated by the project will pay for the project over the 20-year term of the ELPA. OpTerra is guaranteeing the savings. The financing for the project is secured by the solar system equipment. Ongoing construction costs are funded through an escrow account established by the ELPA with BAPCC. Over 30 years, the project is expected to save the county over $116 million in avoided energy costs.

Currently, four solar sites have been completed and are generating solar through Edison. A fifth site has been completed and is awaiting a permit to operate from SCE. Two large generating sites have completed construction and are pending direction from SCE regarding electrical equipment to be installed. Two more sites are under construction, while another site is still in the design phase.

The ELPA does not require the county to make payments on the debt service until all of the solar equipment is substantially available for the county's beneficial use. Since the county does not yet have all of the solar equipment substantially available, the attached amendment makes adjustments to the Rental Payment Commencement date and the Acquisition period so that construction can continue to be funded through the escrow account. It also amortizes any accrued interest over the life of the 20-year ELPA agreement. These changes are necessary for the project to move forward towards completion.

Impact on Citizens and Businesses

This project will result in greater availability of shaded parking at county facilities. Also, the project is expected to generate 19,034,548 kWh per year, which will remove 13,125 metric tons of Carbon Dioxide (GHG equivalent) annually from Riverside County air. This will improve the air quality in the county.

SUPPLEMENTAL:

Additional Fiscal Information

The $1,707,646 in accrued interest resulting from these changes will be amortized over the term of the 20-year ELPA agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and in consideration of the premises contained in the Original Agreement and hereinafter, the parties hereby agree as follows:

Lessee reasonably expects as of the Effective Date that the acquisition and installation of all of the Equipment on the Lessee-owned facilities as described above will be completed and accepted, and the Equipment will be substantially available for Lessee's beneficial use and enjoyment for purposes of the Agreement, no later than June 30, 2016. Lessee hereby further represents and warrants on the Effective Date for the benefit of Lessor that no Material Adverse Change has occurred since October 30, 2014 (i.e., the dated date of the Original Agreement). Lessor and Lessee have agreed, and have determined on the Effective Date, that the rentals (as provided in Exhibit B attached hereto) shall not be in excess of the fair rental value of the Equipment under the Original Agreement as amended by this First Amendment, for purposes of Section 4.03 of the Original Agreement.

(f) Lessee shall provide promptly to Lessor upon its request information relating to the Lessee-owned sites on which Equipment is to be installed to enable Lessor to perfect its security interest in the Equipment pursuant to Section 6.02 of the Original Agreement to the extent that the sites on which the Equipment is to be installed have changed since the date of execution and delivery of the Original Agreement.

Section 2.02. Original Agreement Otherwise to Remain in Full Force and Effect. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this First Amendment, the Original Agreement shall remain in full force and effect as originally executed and delivered.

Section 2.03. Severability. In the event any provision of this First Amendment shall be held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not invalidate or render unenforceable any other provision hereof.
