BACKGROUND:

Summary (continued)

Revenue and Taxation Code 4676 (b) states that the county shall make reasonable effort to obtain the name and last known mailing address of the parties of interest. Then, if the address of the party of interest cannot be obtained, the county shall publish notice of the right to claim excess proceeds in a newspaper of general circulation in the county as per Revenue and Taxation Code 4676 (c). The Treasurer-Tax Collector's Office has made it a policy to take the following actions to locate the rightful party of the excess proceeds.

- Examined title reports to notify all parties of interest attached to the parcel.
- Researched all last assessee's through the County's Property Tax System for any parties of interest.
- Used Accurint (people finder) to notify any new addresses that may be listed for our parties of interest.
- Advertised in newspapers for three consecutive weeks in the Desert Sun, Palo Verde Valley Times and the Press Enterprise referring any parties of interest to file a claim for the excess proceeds.
- Sent out a certified mailing within 90 days as required by Revenue and Taxation Code 4675.

According to Revenue and Taxation Code 4675 (a) Any party of interest in the property may file with the county a claim for the excess proceeds, in proportion to his or her interest held with others of equal priority in the property at the time of the sale, at any time prior to the expiration of the one year following the recordation of the Tax Collector's deed to the Purchaser, which was recorded on October 2, 2013.

The Treasurer-Tax Collector has received three claims for excess proceeds:

1. Claim from Rudolph Kimmich, Trustee of the Kelly Sorrell Charitable Remainder Trust based on a Trustees Deed Upon Sale recorded January 8, 2009 as Instrument No. 2009-0008278.
2. Claim from Rudolph Kimmich, Trustee of the Tracy Nei Charitable Remainder Trust based on a Trustees Deed Upon Sale recorded January 8, 2009 as Instrument No. 2009-0008278.

KELLY SORRELL CHARITABLE REMAINDER UNITRUST

On this 7 day of JULY, 1996, I, GORDON KIMMICH, (hereinafter referred to as "the Donor"), desiring to establish a charitable remainder unitrust within the meaning of Section 4 of Rev. Proc. 90-30 and section 664(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (hereinafter referred to as "the Code") hereby create the Kelly Sorrell Charitable Remainder Unitrust and designate my brother, Rudy Kimmich as the initial trustee.

1. Establishment of Trust. The Donor transfers to the trustee the property described in Schedule A, and the trustee accepts such property and agrees to hold, manage and distribute such property of the trust under the terms set forth in this trust instrument.

2. Payment of Annuity. In each taxable year of the trust, the trustee shall pay to Gordon Kimmich during his lifetime, and after his death to Kelly Sorrell (hereinafter referred to as the "recipients"), for such time as he or she survives, a unitrust amount (the "unitrust amount") equal to ten percent of the net fair market value of the assets of the trust valued as of the first day of each taxable year of the trust (the "valuation date"). The unitrust amount shall be paid in quarterly amounts from income and, to the extent that income is not sufficient, from principal. Any income of the trust for a taxable year in excess of the unitrust amount shall be added to principal. If for any year the net fair market value of the trust assets is incorrectly determined, then within a reasonable period after the value is finally determined for federal tax purposes, the trustee shall pay to the recipient (in the case of an undervaluation) or receive from the recipient (in the case of an overvaluation) an amount equal to the difference between the unitrust amount properly payable and the unitrust amount actually paid.

3. Payment of Taxes. The lifetime unitrust interest of the second recipient will take effect upon the death of the first recipient to die only if the second recipient furnishes funds for payment of federal estate taxes or state death taxes, if any, for which the trustee may be liable upon the death of the first recipient to die.

4. Proration for Short Taxable Years. In determining the unitrust amount, the trustee shall prorate on a daily basis for a short taxable year and for the taxable year ending with the survivor recipient's death.

5. Disposition at Death of Recipient. Upon the death of the survivor recipient, the trustee shall distribute all of the then principal and income of the trust (other than any amount due either of the recipients or their estates under the provisions above) to the Kimmich Family Foundation. If the Kimmich Family Foundation is not an organization described in all of sections 170(c), 2055(a), and 2522(a) of the Code (hereinafter referred to as a "charitable organization") at the time when any principal or income of the trust is to be distributed to it, then the trustee shall distribute such principal or income to such one or more charitable organizations as the trustee shall select in its sole discretion. I, Gordon Kimmich, reserve the right from time to time during my lifetime or at my death to designate any one or more organizations, each of which must be a charitable organization, to receive any part or all of such trust property otherwise distributable as provided above in this paragraph. Each such designation made during my lifetime shall be by revocable written instrument delivered to the trustee specifically referring to this right to designate; and, if more than one such instrument is so delivered, the last instrument so delivered shall control. Any such designation made at my death shall be by will specifically referring to the right to designate, and any such designation by will shall supersede all prior revocable written instruments delivered to the trustee in accordance with the preceding sentence. The trustee may rely on a will admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as my last will or may assume I had no will in the absence of actual knowledge of a will within three months after my death.

6. Additional Contributions. If any additional contributions are made to the trust after the initial contribution, the unitrust amount for the year in which the additional contribution is made shall be ten percent of the sum of (a) the net fair market value of the trust assets as of the first day of the taxable year (excluding the assets so added and any income from, or appreciation on, such assets) and (b) that proportion of the value of the assets so added that was excluded under (a) that the number of days in the period that begins with the date of contribution and ends with the earlier of the last day of the taxable year or the date of death of the survivor recipient bears to the number of days in the period that begins on the first day of such taxable year and ends with the earlier of the last day in such taxable year or the date of death of the survivor recipient. In the case where there is no valuation date after the time of contribution, the assets so added shall be valued at the time of contribution.

7. Internal Revenue Code Requirements. The income of the trust for each taxable year shall be distributed at such time and in such manner as not to subject the trust to tax under section 4942 of the Code. Except for the payment of the unitrust amount to the recipients, the trustee shall not engage in any act of self-dealing, as defined in section 4941(d), and shall not make any taxable expenditures, as defined in section 4945(d). The trustee shall not make any investments that jeopardize the charitable purpose of the trust, within the meaning of section 4944, or retain any excess business holdings, within the meaning of section 4943.

8. Taxable Year. The taxable year of the trust shall be the calendar year.

9. Facility of Payment. Whenever the trustee considers that an individual recipient entitled to payments under paragraph 2 is incapacitated in any way so as to be unable to manage his or her financial affairs, such payments may be made directly to such recipient or to such recipient's duly appointed conservator or may be expended for such recipient's benefit, as the trustee considers advisable.

10. Protection from Creditors. The interests of the individual recipients in principal or income shall not be subject to the claims of their creditors or others and may not be transferred or encumbered, except that an individual recipient may transfer any part or all of his or her interest to a charitable organization.

11. Trustee Powers. In the administration of the trust, the trustee, except as otherwise provided in this instrument, shall have the following powers and rights and all others granted by law:

(a) To manage, sell, contract to sell, grant or exercise options to purchase, convey, exchange, transfer, abandon, improve, repair, insure, lease for any term (although commencing in the future or extending beyond the term of the trust) and otherwise deal with all property, real or personal, in such manner, for such prices and on such terms and conditions as the trustee shall decide.

(b) To retain indefinitely any property received by the trustee and invest and reinvest the trust property in stocks, bonds, mortgages, notes, regulated investment companies, common or commingled trust funds or other property of any kind, real or personal, including interests in partnerships, joint ventures, land trusts or other title-holding trusts, investment trusts or other business organizations as a limited or general partner, shareholder, creditor or otherwise, and any investment made or retained by the trustee in good faith shall be proper despite any resulting risk or lack of diversification or marketability and although not of a kind considered by law suitable for trust investments.

(c) To subdivide, resubdivide, raze, alter, dedicate, vacate, donate, partition, release, lease or renew, amend or extend leases for any term, contract to make leases, grant options to lease or to purchase the whole or any part of the reversion, contract regarding the manner of fixing present or future rentals and grant easements or charges of any kind on or with respect to any property, real or personal, including any improvements thereon, or any right, title or interest therein, all for such prices and on such terms and conditions, although commencing in the future or extending beyond the term of the trust, as the trustee shall decide.

(d) To borrow from any source and mortgage or pledge any trust property.

(e) To settle or abandon claims or demands.

(f) To give proxies to vote stocks and voting securities and to enter into or oppose, alone or with others, voting trusts, mergers, consolidations, foreclosures, liquidations, reorganizations or other changes in the financial structure of any corporation.

(g) To hold property in the name of a nominee or in any other way without disclosing the trust relationship.

(h) To employ agents and counsel and delegate to them any powers of the trustee.

(i) To decide, in accordance with applicable rules of law, how and in what proportions any receipts or disbursements shall be credited, charged or apportioned as between principal and income.

(j) To divide or distribute trust property in undivided interests or wholly or partly in kind, provided, however that the adjusted basis of property distributed in kind to a charitable organization shall be fairly representative of the adjusted basis of all property then available for distribution.

(k) To pay all taxes and all reasonable expenses, including compensation to the trustee and the agents and counsel of the trustee, except that a charitable organization shall not be entitled to compensation for serving as trustee. The foregoing notwithstanding, no expenses or compensation shall be paid from the unitrust amount.

(l) To appoint or remove by written instrument any person or qualified corporation, wherever located, as special trustee as to part or all of the trust property, including property as to which the trustee does not act, and such special trustee, except as specifically limited or provided by this or the appointing instrument, shall have all of the rights, titles, powers, duties, discretions and immunities of the trustee, without liability for any action taken or omitted to be taken under this or the appointing instrument.

(m) To receive additional property from any person by will or otherwise.

(n) To perform all other acts in the trustee's judgment appropriate for the proper management, investment and distribution of trust property.

12. Special Provisions. I consider bonds, notes or other securities the income from which is exempt from federal income taxation as proper investments of trust property, and, except to the extent otherwise provided in paragraphs 7 above, and 18 below, the trustee is expressly authorized to invest or retain indefinitely any part or all of the trust property in such investments, without regard to diversification and without liability for any loss which may result.

13. Third Party Relationships. The trustee's exercise or nonexercise of powers and discretions in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons. No one need see to the application of money paid or property delivered to the trustee. The trustee's certificate that the trustee is acting according to this instrument shall fully protect all persons dealing with the trustee.

14. Court Accountings. To the extent such requirements can be waived, the trustee shall not be required (a) to file any inventory of trust property or accounts or reports of the administration of the trust, or to register the trust, in any court, (b) to furnish any bond or other security for the proper performance of the trustee's duties or (c) to obtain authority from a court for the exercise of any power conferred on the trustee by this instrument.

15. Titles and References. Where not otherwise specified, all references in this instrument to the Internal Revenue Code and to Sections thereof are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to sections thereof and shall include future amendments to such Code and sections and corresponding provisions of future federal tax laws, all as from time to time in effect.

16. Trustee Resignation and Succession. A trustee may resign at any time by written notice to me, if legally competent, otherwise to Kelly Sorrell, if legally competent. I, if legally competent, otherwise Kelly Sorrell, if legally competent, otherwise Rudy Kimmich, if legally competent, may appoint a successor to fill any vacancy in the office of trustee by written instrument delivered to the person (other than myself or Kelly Sorrell) appointed.

17. Trustee Succession and Appointment. Each successor trustee shall have the same rights, titles, powers, duties, discretions and immunities and otherwise be in the same position as if originally named trustee. No successor trustee shall be personally liable for any act or failure to act of a predecessor trustee. With the approval of the person or persons appointing a successor trustee, the latter may accept the account furnished and the property delivered by a predecessor trustee without liability for so doing, and such acceptance shall be a full and complete discharge to the predecessor trustee.

18. Investments. Nothing in this trust instrument shall be construed to restrict the trustee from investing the trust assets in a manner that could result in the annual realization of a reasonable amount of income or gain from the sale or disposition of trust assets.

19. Governing Law. The operation of the trust shall be governed by the laws of the State of California. The trustee, however, is prohibited from exercising any power or discretion granted under said laws that would be inconsistent with the qualification of the trust under section 664(d)(2) of the Code and the corresponding regulations.

20. Irrevocable. The trust is irrevocable. The trustee, however, shall have the power, acting alone, to amend the trust in any manner required for the sole purpose of ensuring that the trust qualifies and continues to qualify as a charitable remainder unitrust within the meaning of section 664(d)(2) of the Code.

21. Limited Power to Revoke and Terminate. I reserve the right by an appropriate provision in my will to revoke and terminate the interest of Kelly Sorrell created under paragraph 2 above. Despite any other provisions of this instrument, if I by my will so revoke and terminate Kelly Sorrell's said interest, then from and after my death Kelly Sorrell shall, for all purposes of this instrument, be deemed to have died on the day immediately preceding the date of my death. Except for the right to revoke and terminate the interest of Kelly Sorrell by my will and except to the extent otherwise provided in paragraph 5 above, I waive all right, power and authority to alter, amend, modify, revoke or terminate this agreement and the trust hereby evidenced.

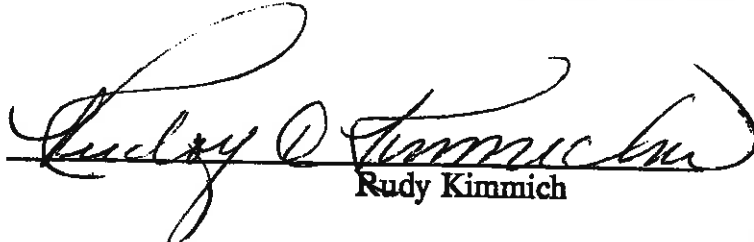

In Witness Whereof, I have set my hand and seal this 7TH day of July 7, 1996.

Gordon Kimmich

TRACEY NEI CHARITABLE REMAINDER UNITRUST

McDERMOTT, WILL & EMERY
1301 Dove Street, Suite 500
Newport Beach, California 92660-2444

TRACEY NEI CHARITABLE REMAINDER UNITRUST

On this 7 day of JULY, 1996, I, GORDON KIMMICH, (hereinafter referred to as "the Donor"), desiring to establish a charitable remainder unitrust within the meaning of Section 4 of Rev. Proc. 90-30 and section 664(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (hereinafter referred to as "the Code") hereby create the Tracey Nei Charitable Remainder Unitrust and designate my brother, Rudy Kimmich as the initial trustee.

1. Establishment of Trust. The Donor transfers to the trustee the property described in Schedule A, and the trustee accepts such property and agrees to hold, manage and distribute such property of the trust under the terms set forth in this trust instrument.
2. Payment of Annuity. In each taxable year of the trust, the trustee shall pay to Gordon Kimmich during his lifetime, and after his death to Tracey Nei (hereinafter referred to as the "recipients"), for such time as he or she survives, a unitrust amount (the "unitrust amount") equal to ten percent of the net fair market value of the assets of the trust valued as of the first day of each taxable year of the trust (the "valuation date"). The unitrust amount shall be paid in quarterly amounts from income and, to the extent that income is not sufficient, from principal. Any income of the trust for a taxable year in excess of the unitrust amount shall be added to principal. If for any year the net fair market value of the trust assets is incorrectly determined, then within a reasonable period after the value is finally determined for federal tax purposes, the trustee shall pay to the recipient (in the case of an undervaluation) or receive from the recipient (in the case of an overvaluation) an amount equal to the difference between the unitrust amount properly payable and the unitrust amount actually paid.

3. Payment of Taxes. The lifetime unitrust interest of the second recipient will take effect upon the death of the first recipient to die only if the second recipient furnishes funds for payment of federal estate taxes or state death taxes, if any, for which the trustee may be liable upon the death of the first recipient to die.

4. Proration for Short Taxable Years. In determining the unitrust amount, the trustee shall prorate on a daily basis for a short taxable year and for the taxable year ending with the survivor recipient's death.

5. Disposition at Death of Recipient. Upon the death of the survivor recipient, the trustee shall distribute all of the then principal and income of the trust (other than any amount due either of the recipients or their estates under the provisions above) to the Kimmich Family Foundation. If the Kimmich Family Foundation is not an organization described in all of sections 170(c), 2055(a), and 2522(a) of the Code (hereinafter referred to as a "charitable organization") at the time when any principal or income of the trust is to be distributed to it, then the trustee shall distribute such principal or income to such one or more charitable organizations as the trustee shall select in its sole discretion. I, Gordon Kimmich, reserve the right from time to time during my lifetime or at my death to designate any one or more organizations, each of which must be a charitable organization, to receive any part or all of such trust property otherwise distributable as provided above in this paragraph. Each such designation made during my lifetime shall be by revocable written instrument delivered to the trustee specifically referring to this right to designate; and, if more than one such instrument is so delivered, the last instrument so delivered shall control. Any such designation made at my death shall be by will specifically referring to the right to designate, and any such designation by will shall supersede all prior revocable written instruments delivered to the trustee in accordance with the preceding sentence. The trustee may rely on a will admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as my last will or may assume I had no will in the absence of actual knowledge of a will within three months after my death.

6. Additional Contributions. If any additional contributions are made to the trust after the initial contribution, the unitrust amount for the year in which the additional contribution is made shall be ten percent of the sum of (a) the net fair market value of the trust assets as of the first day of the taxable year (excluding the assets so added and any income from, or appreciation on, such assets) and (b) that proportion of the value of the assets so added that was excluded under (a) that the number of days in the period that begins with the date of contribution and ends with the earlier of the last day of the taxable year or the date of death of the survivor recipient bears to the number of days in the period that begins on the first day of such taxable year and ends with the earlier of the last day in such taxable year or the date of death of the survivor recipient. In the case where there is no valuation date after the time of contribution, the assets so added shall be valued at the time of contribution.

7. Internal Revenue Code Requirements. The income of the trust for each taxable year shall be distributed at such time and in such manner as not to subject the trust to tax under section 4942 of the Code. Except for the payment of the unitrust amount to the recipients, the trustee shall not engage in any act of self-dealing, as defined in section 4941(d), and shall not make any taxable expenditures, as defined in section 4945(d). The trustee shall not make any investments that jeopardize the charitable purpose of the trust, within the meaning of section 4944, or retain any excess business holdings, within the meaning of section 4943.

8. Taxable Year. The taxable year of the trust shall be the calendar year.

9. Facility of Payment. Whenever the trustee considers that an individual recipient entitled to payments under paragraph 2 is incapacitated in any way so as to be unable to manage his or her financial affairs, such payments may be made directly to such recipient or to such recipient's duly appointed conservator or may be expended for such recipient's benefit, as the trustee considers advisable.

10. Protection from Creditors. The interests of the individual recipients in principal or income shall not be subject to the claims of their creditors or others and may not be transferred or encumbered, except that an individual recipient may transfer any part or all of his or her interest to a charitable organization.

11. Trustee Powers. In the administration of the trust, the trustee, except as otherwise provided in this instrument, shall have the following powers and rights and all others granted by law:

(a) To manage, sell, contract to sell, grant or exercise options to purchase, convey, exchange, transfer, abandon, improve, repair, insure, lease for any term (although commencing in the future or extending beyond the term of the trust) and otherwise deal with all property, real or personal, in such manner, for such prices and on such terms and conditions as the trustee shall decide.

(b) To retain indefinitely any property received by the trustee and invest and reinvest the trust property in stocks, bonds, mortgages, notes, regulated investment companies, common or commingled trust funds or other property of any kind, real or personal, including interests in partnerships, joint ventures, land trusts or other title-holding trusts, investment trusts or other business organizations as a limited or general partner, shareholder, creditor or otherwise, and any investment made or retained by the trustee in good faith shall be proper despite any resulting risk or lack of diversification or marketability and although not of a kind considered by law suitable for trust investments.

(c) To subdivide, resubdivide, raze, alter, dedicate, vacate, donate, partition, release, lease or renew, amend or extend leases for any term, contract to make leases, grant options to lease or to purchase the whole or any part of the reversion, contract regarding the manner of fixing present or future rentals and grant easements or charges of any kind on or with respect to any property, real or personal, including any improvements thereon, or any right, title or interest therein, all for such prices and on such terms and conditions, although commencing in the future or extending beyond the term of the trust, as the trustee shall decide.

(d) To borrow from any source and mortgage or pledge any trust property.

(e) To settle or abandon claims or demands.

(f) To give proxies to vote stocks and voting securities and to enter into or oppose, alone or with others, voting trusts, mergers, consolidations, foreclosures, liquidations, reorganizations or other changes in the financial structure of any corporation.

(g) To hold property in the name of a nominee or in any other way without disclosing the trust relationship.

(h) To employ agents and counsel and delegate to them any powers of the trustee.

(i) To decide, in accordance with applicable rules of law, how and in what proportions any receipts or disbursements shall be credited, charged or apportioned as between principal and income.

(j) To divide or distribute trust property in undivided interests or wholly or partly in kind, provided, however that the adjusted basis of property distributed in kind to a charitable organization shall be fairly representative of the adjusted basis of all property then available for distribution.

(k) To pay all taxes and all reasonable expenses, including compensation to the trustee and the agents and counsel of the trustee, except that a charitable organization shall not be entitled to compensation for serving as trustee. The foregoing notwithstanding, no expenses or compensation shall be paid from the unitrust amount.

(l) To appoint or remove by written instrument any person or qualified corporation, wherever located, as special trustee as to part or all of the trust property, including property as to which the trustee does not act, and such special trustee, except as specifically limited or provided by this or the appointing instrument, shall have all of the rights, titles, powers, duties, discretions and immunities of the trustee, without liability for any action taken or omitted to be taken under this or the appointing instrument.

(m) To receive additional property from any person by will or otherwise.

(n) To perform all other acts in the trustee's judgment appropriate for the proper management, investment and distribution of trust property.

12. Special Provisions. I consider bonds, notes or other securities the income from which is exempt from federal income taxation as proper investments of trust property, and, except to the extent otherwise provided in paragraphs 7 above, and 18 below, the trustee is expressly authorized to invest or retain indefinitely any part or all of the trust property in such investments, without regard to diversification and without liability for any loss which may result.

13. Third Party Relationships. The trustee's exercise or nonexercise of powers and discretions in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons. No one need see to the application of money paid or property delivered to the trustee. The trustee's certificate that the trustee is acting according to this instrument shall fully protect all persons dealing with the trustee.

14. Court Accountings. To the extent such requirements can be waived, the trustee shall not be required (a) to file any inventory of trust property or accounts or reports of the administration of the trust, or to register the trust, in any court, (b) to furnish any bond or other security for the proper performance of the trustee's duties or (c) to obtain authority from a court for the exercise of any power conferred on the trustee by this instrument.

15. Titles and References. Where not otherwise specified, all references in this instrument to the Internal Revenue Code and to Sections thereof are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to sections thereof and shall include future amendments to such Code and sections and corresponding provisions of future federal tax laws, all as from time to time in effect.

16. Trustee Resignation and Succession. A trustee may resign at any time by written notice to me, if legally competent, otherwise to Tracey Nei, if legally competent. I, if legally competent, otherwise Tracey Nei, if legally competent, otherwise Rudy Kimmich, if legally competent, may appoint a successor to fill any vacancy in the office of trustee by written instrument delivered to the person (other than myself or Tracey Nei) appointed.

17. Trustee Succession and Appointment. Each successor trustee shall have the same rights, titles, powers, duties, discretions and immunities and otherwise be in the same position as if originally named trustee. No successor trustee shall be personally liable for any act or failure to act of a predecessor trustee. With the approval of the person or persons appointing a successor trustee, the latter may accept the account furnished and the property delivered by a predecessor trustee without liability for so doing, and such acceptance shall be a full and complete discharge to the predecessor trustee.

18. Investments. Nothing in this trust instrument shall be construed to restrict the trustee from investing the trust assets in a manner that could result in the annual realization of a reasonable amount of income or gain from the sale or disposition of trust assets.

19. Governing Law. The operation of the trust shall be governed by the laws of the State of California. The trustee, however, is prohibited from exercising any power or discretion granted under said laws that would be inconsistent with the qualification of the trust under section 664(d)(2) of the Code and the corresponding regulations.

20. Irrevocable. The trust is irrevocable. The trustee, however, shall have the power, acting alone, to amend the trust in any manner required for the sole purpose of ensuring that the trust qualifies and continues to qualify as a charitable remainder unitrust within the meaning of section 664(d)(2) of the Code.

21. Limited Power to Revoke and Terminate. I reserve the right by an appropriate provision in my will to revoke and terminate the interest of Tracey Nei created under paragraph 2 above. Despite any other provisions of this instrument, if I by my will so revoke and terminate Tracey Nei's said interest, then from and after my death Tracey Nei shall, for all purposes of this instrument, be deemed to have died on the day immediately preceding the date of my death. Except for the right to revoke and terminate the interest of Tracey Nei by my will and except to the extent otherwise provided in paragraph 5 above, I waive all right, power and authority to alter, amend, modify, revoke or terminate this agreement and the trust hereby evidenced.

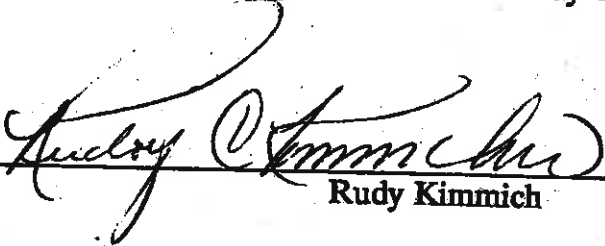

In Witness Whereof, I have set my hand and seal this 7TH day of July 7, 1996.

Gordon Kimmich

The undersigned accepts the foregoing trusts as of the day and year last above written.

Rudy Kimmich

The undersigned on behalf herself, her heirs, personal representatives and assigns, agrees to be bound by the provisions of paragraph 3 of the foregoing instrument.

THIRD: DISTRIBUTIONS DURING JOINT LIVES OR TRUSTORS

So long as both Trustors are living:

A. Payments of Income and Principal From Community Estate: The Trustee shall pay to the Trustors as community property as much of the net income and principal of the community estate as either Trustors may request from time to time. In addition, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Trustors as much of the net income and principal of the community estate as the Trustee deems reasonably necessary for the proper health, maintenance, support and comfort of the Trustors.

B. Payments of Income and Principal From Separate Estate: The Trustee shall pay to a Trustor who has contributed separate property to the trust as much of the net income and principal of that Trustor's separate estate as that Trustor may request from time to time. C. Residential Property: If residential property is transferred to the trust during the joint lives of the Trustors:

1. The Trustee shall permit the Trustors to occupy the property without obligation to pay rent.

3. Further, the Trustee may sell such property only with the consent of both Trustors; provided, however, if a Trustor is incapacitated, the consent of that Trustor shall not be required. If residential property is sold, the Trustee is authorized to purchase substitute residential property for the benefit of the Trustors if the Trustee deems the purchase necessary or appropriated considering the circumstances then existing.

FOURTH: PROVISIONS FOLLOWING DEATH OF DECEASED SPOUSE

After the death of the Deceased Spouse, the Trustee shall hold, administer and distribute the trust estate, including any additions under the Will of the Deceased Spouse or otherwise, as follows:

Section I: Debts and Expenses

A. Payment of Debts and Expenses: The Trustee shall pay the following debts and expenses to the extent the Deceased Spouse's probate estate is insufficient to satisfy them:

1. Last illness and funeral expenses of the Deceased Spouse.
2. Debts for which a valid creditor's claim has been filed (a) in the Deceased Spouse's probate estate (or could have been filed if probate proceedings had been instituted and (b) with the Trustee pursuant to any statute relating to the claims of creditors and revocable trusts.

3. Other debts for which the Deceased Spouse is liable, for example, secured obligations and income taxes, and for which no creditor's claims need to be filed. This provision, however, shall not be construed to require prepayment of any installment obligation, such as a promissory note secured by a deed of trust against real property.

4. Attorney's fees and other costs incurred in connection with the settlement of the Deceased Spouse's estate, including, for example, accounting fees incurred in connection with the preparation of the Deceased Spouse's final income tax returns.

B. Apportionment of Debts and Expenses: All payments made by Trustee pursuant to Paragraph A above shall be charged as follows:

1. Community property debts (except last illness and funeral expenses) shall be charged to the community estate (including the Surviving Spouse's interest therein to the extent more than one-half (½) of any debt is paid by the Trustee.)

2. All other debts and expenses shall be charged to and paid from the Deceased Spouse's separate estate and the Deceased Spouse's interest in the community estate without apportionment unless the Trustee in the Trustee's discretion determines that apportionment on a pro rata basis between the separate and community estate is necessary or advisable to carry out the Deceased Spouse's intent.

Section II: Division of Balance of Trust Estate

The Trustee shall divide the balance of the trust estate into shares as follows:

A. The Survivor's Share: The Survivor's share shall consist of the following:

1. The Surviving Spouse's one-half (½) interest in any community property included in the trust estate.

The Survivor's Share shall be held, administered and distributed in accordance with the Provisions of the Survivor's Trust set forth on Section of Article FIFTH below.

B. The Marital Deduction Share: The Marital Deduction Share shall consist of the smallest amount necessary to reduce to zero the federal estate tax payable as a result of the Deceased Spouse's death, or, if that is not possible, to reduce the federal estate tax to the smallest possible amount. This provision, however, shall not be construed to require the use of the state death tax credit under Internal Revenue Code Section 2011, if such use would result in the payment of additional state death taxes.

1. Each of the Trustors intends by the Provisions of Paragraph B above to take advantage of the unlimited marital deduction allowable under the Internal Revenue Code, but only to the extent the estate of the Deceased Spouse is not otherwise sheltered from tax by available credits, exclusions and other deductions.

BK

2. The Trustee shall satisfy the amount allocable to the Martial Deduction Share in cash or in kind, or part in each, with assets that qualify for the federal estate tax marital deduction. C. The Bypass Share: The Bypass Share shall consist of the balance of the trust estate. The Bypass Share shall be held, administered and distributed in accordance with the Provisions of the Bypass Trust set forth in Section II of Article FIFTH below.

D. Disclaimer Provisions: The Trustors recognize that it may be advisable to subject a portion or all of the Martial Deductions Share to federal estate tax in the Deceased Spouse's estate rather than to defer payment of that tax to the Surviving Spouse's estate. Therefore, if the Surviving Spouse makes a qualified disclaimer of all of his or her beneficial interests that would have been allocated to the Martial Deduction Share but for the disclaimer, an identical portion of the Martial Deduction Share shall be allocated to a separate Disclaimer Trust and shall be held, administered and distributed in accordance with the Provisions of the Bypass Trust set forth in Section II of Article FIFTH below, excluding, however, any power of appointment or power of withdrawal that may be conferred upon the Surviving Spouse under the provisions of that trust.

B. In addition, the Trustee shall pay real property taxes, insurance premiums, and expenses of maintenance and repair from the net income of the respective trusts based on their proportional interests in the property (or, if net income is insufficient, from the principal of such trusts) if the Trustee in the Trustee's discretion determines no other funds are reasonably available to the Surviving Spouse for these purposes.

C. Further, the Trustee may sell such residential property only with the consent of the Surviving Spouse; provided, however, that if the Surviving Spouse is incapacitated, the Surviving Spouse's consent shall not be required. 2. The Special Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered.

3. Any Special Trustee may resign and appoint his or her successor. If a vacancy in the office of Special Trustee occurs and if no person is designated or appointed under this paragraph, a successor shall be appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction, after consideration of any stated preference of the current income beneficiaries.

Resignation of Trustee: Any Trustee may resign at any time as Trustee on giving written notice to the following: (1) the Trustors or the Surviving Spouse; (2) any Co-Trustee; (3) all adult beneficiaries who are entitled or authorized to receive income payments from the trust at that time; and (4) the parents or guardians of any minor beneficiary who is entitled or authorized to receive income payments from the trust at that time. All such resignations shall be effective on relinquishment and delivery of all the trust property to any Co-Trustee or, if none, to the successor Trustee.

C. Powers of Successor Trustee: Any successor Trustee shall succeed as Trustee with like effect as though originally named Trustee under this Agreement. All authority, powers and discretions conferred on the original Trustee under this Agreement shall pass to any successor Trustee. No successor Trustee shall be responsible for the acts or omissions of any prior Trustee, nor shall any successor Trustee be under a duty to audit or investigate the accounts or administration of any prior Trustee. Unless requested in writing by any person having a present or future beneficial interest in the trust, no successor Trustee shall have any duty to take action to obtain redress for breach of trust committed by any prior Trustee.

D. Restriction on Trustee's Powers: Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, no Trustee may use a discretionary power over principal or income to relieve the Trustee of the Trustee's individual obligation to support any minor child of whom the Trustee is a parent or any other person the Trustee is obligated to support.

E. 2. After settlement of the account by reason of the expiration of the ninety (90) day period referred to above or by agreement of the parties, the Trustee shall no longer be liable to any beneficiary of the trust, including any unborn and unascertained beneficiaries, with respect to transactions disclosed in the account, except for the Trustee's intentional wrongdoing of fraud.

F. Limit on Trustee's Liability: In exercising any power under Article EIGHTH of this Agreement, no Individual Trustee shall be liable to any beneficiary or this trust or to any heir of either Trustor for any act, omission or default of that Trustee, of any other Trustee or any other person, except for willful misconduct or gross negligence.

G. Trustee's Compensation: The original Trustees shall serve without compensation. Any successor Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered. Any compensation paid to attorneys, accountants, auditors, investment advisers, depositories, proxies or agents shall not reduce the compensation to which the Trustee is entitled.

H. Third parties may rely on the action of either Trustee with respect to any power, right, duty or discretion conferred on the Trustees hereunder.

I. Waiver of Bond: No bond or other security shall be required of any person named in this Agreement as Trustee or of any person subsequently appointed Trustee under this Agreement even though that person may be or become a nonresident of the state in which the trust is being administered.

TENTH: GENERAL PROVISIONS

The following general provisions shall govern the administration of all trusts under this Agreement.

A. Non-Pro Rata Distributions: In any case in which the Trustee is required under the provisions of the trust to divide any trust property into shares for the purpose of distribution or otherwise, the Trustee is authorized to allot and make the division or distribution, pro rata or otherwise, in cash or in kind, including undivided interests in any property, or partly in cash and partly in kind, in the Trustee's discretion.

B. Separate Accounts: The Trustee shall keep separate accounts for the different interests, but the Trustee need not physically segregate the assets of the separate trusts except as segregation may be required by the termination of any trust hereunder.

C. Accrued Income: The Trustee shall treat income accrued or unpaid on trust property when received into the trust as income. Income accrued or held undistributed by the Trustee at the termination of any interest shall go to the next beneficiaries of the trust in proportion to their interests in the trust.

D. Release of Trustees Powers: The Trustee shall have the power to release or restrict the scope of any power that the Trustee may hold in connection with any trust under this Agreement, whether such power is expressly granted by this Agreement or implied by law.

E. Notice of Events: Until the Trustee receives actual notice of any birth, death or other event on which the right to receive payment from the trust depends, the Trustee shall not be liable to any beneficiary of this trust for disbursements or distributions previously made in good faith.

F. Severability Provision: If any provision of this Agreement is unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall be carried into effect.

G. Governing Law: These trusts have been accepted by the Trustee in the State of California. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, the validity, construction, administration and all rights under this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of California in force from time to time, regardless of any change of residence of the Trustee or any beneficiary or the appointment or substitution of a Trustee residing or doing business in another state.

H. Life Insurance Policies: The Trustee and the owner of any life insurance policy payable to any trust hereunder shall have the following rights, powers and obligations:

1. The Trustee shall not be required to pay premiums, assessments or other charges on any policy to keep it a binding contract of insurance.

2. The owner of each policy has reserved all rights, options and privileges conferred on the owner, including, but not limited to, the right to change the beneficiary designation thereof, to hypothecate the policy and to borrow funds from the insurer. Nothing in this subparagraph however, shall be construed as limiting the right of either Trustor to dispose by Will of his or her interest in any insurance policy on the other Trustor's life or any right a Trustor may possess in any insurance policy by virtue of its community property character.

3. On proof of the death of the insured, the Trustee shall use reasonable efforts to collect all sums payable under any insurance policy, and on receipt shall treat these proceeds as principal of the trust, except interest paid by the insurer, which shall be income. Subject to any contrary provision in the beneficiary designation of any policy, all sums payable under any policy shall be allocated in accordance with the provisions of Article FOURTH or Section IV of Article FIFTH, as the case may be.

PKH

4. The Trustee may compromise, arbitrate or otherwise adjust claims on any policy. The receipt of the Trustee delivered to any insurer shall be a full discharge, and the insurer is not required to oversee the application of the proceeds.

5. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any act or omission of the Trustors relating to any policy and shall not be required to prosecute any action to collect any insurance or benefits or to defend any action relating to any policy unless indemnified in a manner and amount satisfactory to the Trustee.

ELEVENTH: RIGHTS RESERVED BY THE TRUSTORS

E. Effective Date of Amendment: Any instrument to alter, amend or revoke this Agreement shall be effective immediately on its execution, but until a copy has been received by the Trustee, the Trustee shall incur no liability or responsibility either for failing to act in accordance with such instrument or for acting in accordance with this Agreement unaffected by the instrument to alter, amend or revoke.

F. Trustor's Incapacity: If a Trustor is incapacitated, the power of that Trustor to alter, amend or revoke this Agreement or any of the trusts under this Agreement may be exercised by the duly appointed conservator or guardian of that incapacitated Trustor's estate, but only with the prior approval of the court that appointed the conservator or guardian.
