Brian Nestande has a wealth of experience in government and politics. Nestande, a former state legislator, began his career as deputy campaign manager for the successful congressional campaign of Michael Huffington in Santa Barbara County. Nestande went on to manage the successful congressional campaign of then-Palm Springs Mayor Sonny Bono, later serving as Bono's chief of staff, a position he continued under Mary Bono Mack.

In 2000, Nestande built a government affairs consulting business named Nestande and Associates which was headquartered in Palm Desert. He represented a variety of clients working on issues involving alternative energy, health care, telecommunications as well as on other projects and issues in Riverside County, including handling government relations for the Tram Board in 2004 and 2005.

Nestande has experience working with the Tram Board and is familiar with the Board's operations. He will be an excellent addition to the Board, and I recommend his appointment.
