BACKGROUND: (continued)

Because the Board is not meeting again until August 31, 2010, the report and extension must be made at this time. The report is set forth in Section 4. of Ordinance No. 449.240 which extends Ordinance No. 449.239 for ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days as noted above.

It is unlikely that Ordinance No. 449.240 will have the effect of denying approvals needed for the development of projects with a significant component of multi-family housing because such projects are not typically constructed exclusively for parolee-probationers. Multi-family housing projects may, in most cases, be occupied by anyone. The appropriate findings, however, have been made in Section 3. of Ordinance No. 449.240 in the event the ordinance has such an effect. The continued approval of the development of multi-family housing occupied by parolee-probationers would have the specific adverse public health and safety impacts described in Section 2. of Ordinance No. 449.240. The prohibition of parolee-probationer homes in Ordinance No. 449.240 is necessary to mitigate or avoid these adverse impacts because there is no feasible alternative that would ensure such mitigation or avoidance. The placement of parolee-probationers could be restricted or parolee-probationers could be required to wear monitoring devices, but the County has no jurisdiction to impose such requirements.

3 EXTENDING URGENCY INTERIM ORDINANCE NO. 449.239

4 PROHIBITING PAROLEE-PROBATIONER HOMES

6
7 The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside ordains as follows:

8 Section 1. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of 9 Ordinance No. 348 and, notwithstanding any provision of Ordinance No. 348 to the contrary, Ordinance
10 No. 449.239 is hereby extended for ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the date of its expiration,
11 during which time parolee-probationer homes are prohibited in the unincorporated area of Riverside
12 County because they may be in conflict with a contemplated zoning proposal that the Planning
13 Department is studying and because they may subject County residents to the adverse effects described 14 in Section 2. of this ordinance. Until this ordinance, or any extension hereof, expires or is repealed, the 15 County shall not issue a land use approval, a building permit or any other entitlement for a parolee-16 probationer home and no person shall operate a parolee-probationer home in the County. As used in this 17 ordinance, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

18 a. Parolee-Probationer Home. Any residential building, or portion thereof, 19 owned or operated by any person which houses two (2) or more parolee-probationers, unrelated by 20 blood, marriage, or legal adoption, in exchange for monetary or non-monetary consideration given or 21 paid by the parolee-probationers, or given or paid by any person on behalf of the parolee-probationers, 22 excluding any state-licensed residential care facility serving six (6) or fewer persons. In determining 23 whether a state-licensed residential care facility serves six (6) or fewer persons, the licensee, members of 24 the licensee's family and persons employed as facility staff shall not be counted.

25 b. Parolee. A person convicted of a federal crime and sentenced to a United 26 States federal prison who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the 27 supervision of a federal parole officer; a person serving a period of supervised community custody as 28 defined by Penal Code section 3000, following a term of imprisonment in a state prison, who is under

1 the supervision of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Adult Parole
2 Operations; or an adult or juvenile sentenced to a term in the California Department of Corrections and
3 Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Facilities (formerly known as the "California Youth Authority")
4 who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of the 5 California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Parole Operations.

6 c. Probationer. A person convicted of a felony who has received a
7 suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order of conditional and revocable
8 release in the community under the supervision of a probation officer, or a person convicted of a 9 misdemeanor who has received a suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order 10 of revocable release in the community subject to conditions established by the court without the 11 supervision of a probation officer, as provided in Penal Code section 1203.

12 d. State-Licensed Residential Care Facility. A facility licensed by the State
13 of California to provide residential care services, including those facilities described in Health & Safety 14 Code sections 1250 et seq., 1500 et seq., 1568.01 et seq., 1569 et seq., 1760 et seq., and 11834.20 et seq.
15 and those facilities described in Welfare and Institutions Code section 5116.

16 Section 2. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of 17 Ordinance No. 348, this ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency measure and shall take effect 18 upon its adoption. It shall be of no further force or effect ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the 19 date of expiration of Ordinance No. 449.239, unless extended pursuant to law. In adopting this 20 ordinance, the Board finds that parolee-probationer homes pose a current and immediate threat to the 21 public health, safety and welfare for the following reasons:

22 Parolee-probationer homes are proliferating in Riverside County as a result of new laws
23 mandating the early release of certain state prisoners;

24 Riverside County can expect over 5,000 inmates to be paroled in the next twelve (12)
25 months with ties to the area;

26 The California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation is increasingly placing 27 parolees and probationers in the County even when they committed crimes in other counties and have no
28 ties to the area;

1 Based on reports generated by various public agencies throughout California, parolee-
2 probationer homes often result in increased criminal activity and generate a disproportionate number of 3 requests for law enforcement services; this adversely affects other segments of the community needing 4 such services and unduly imposes a burden on law enforcement services in general;

5 Parolee-probationer homes often result in parking and noise problems and have other 6 harmful secondary effects, such as encouraging the illegal conversion of garages and living spaces into 7 sleeping spaces;

8 The harmful secondary effects associated with parolee-probationer homes may negatively
9 affect surrounding home values and result in increased foreclosures and resident displacement;

10 Existing zoning regulations do not adequately address parolee-probationer homes and 11 absent this ordinance, parolee-probationer homes could be located near schools, day care centers, parks, 12 playgrounds and other sensitive uses.

13 Section 3. In adopting this ordinance, the Board finds each of the following:
14 continued approval of the development of multi-family housing projects that parolee-probationers may 15 occupy would have the specific, adverse impacts upon the public health or safety described in Section 2.
16 of this ordinance; this ordinance is necessary to mitigate or avoid these specific, adverse impacts; and 17 there is no feasible alternative to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the specific, adverse impacts as well or 18 better, with a less burdensome or restrictive effect, than the adoption of this ordinance.

19 Section 4. In adopting this ordinance, the Board reports that the following measures 20 have been taken to alleviate the condition which led to its adoption and the adoption of Ordinance No.
21 449.239: the Planning Department, in consultation with the Office of County Counsel, is currently 22 engaged in a comprehensive revision of the County's zoning ordinance. As part of this comprehensive 23 revision, the Planning Department is studying and formulating regular zoning regulations, consistent 24 with State law, that adequately address parolee-probationer homes and protect the public from their 25 harmful secondary effects. Planning Commission workshops regarding the revised zoning ordinance
26 have been scheduled in October and December of this year.

27 Section 5. The Clerk shall schedule a public hearing before the Board to consider any 28 extension of this ordinance which shall normally be at its second regular meeting before expiration of

1 the ten (10) month and fifteen (15) day period. The Clerk shall publish notice ten (10) days before the 2 hearing. A public hearing need not, however, be scheduled if any of the following occurs: a regular
3 zoning ordinance addressing parolee-probationer homes is adopted and effective before such expiration,
4 this ordinance is repealed, or the Board otherwise orders.

5 Section 6. At or before the public hearing on any proposed extension, and at least ten
6 (10) days prior to the expiration of this ordinance, the Board, in consultation with the Planning Director, 7 shall issue a written report describing therein all measures taken to alleviate the condition which led to 8 the adoption of this ordinance and Ordinance No. 449.239.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING BEFORE THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing at which all interested persons will be heard, will be held before the Board of Supervisors of Riverside County, California, on the 1st Floor Board Chambers, County Administrative Center, 4080 Lemon Street, Riverside, on Tuesday, August 10, 2010 at 9:30 a.m. to consider adoption of the following ordinance:

ORDINANCE NO. 449.240
AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE
EXTENDING URGENCY INTERIM ORDINANCE NO. 449.239
PROHIBITING PAROLEE-PROBATIONER HOMES

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside ordains as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of Ordinance No. 348 and, notwithstanding any provision of Ordinance No. 348 to the contrary, Ordinance No. 449.239 is hereby extended for ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the date of its expiration, during which time parolee-probationer homes are prohibited in the unincorporated area of Riverside County because they may be in conflict with a contemplated zoning proposal that the Planning Department is studying and because they may subject County residents to the adverse effects described in Section 2. of this ordinance. Until this ordinance, or any extension hereof, expires or is repealed, the County shall not issue a land use approval, a building permit or any other entitlement for a parolee-probationer home and no person shall operate a parolee-probationer home in the County. As used in this ordinance, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

a. Parolee-Probationer Home. Any residential building, or portion thereof, owned or operated by any person which houses two (2) or more parolee-probationers, unrelated by blood, marriage, or legal adoption, in exchange for monetary or non-monetary consideration given or paid by the parolee-probationers, or given or paid by any person on behalf of the parolee-probationers, excluding any state-licensed residential care facility serving six (6) or fewer persons. In determining whether a state-licensed residential care facility serves six (6) or fewer persons, the licensee, members of the licensee's family and persons employed as facility staff shall not be counted.

b. Parolee. A person convicted of a federal crime and sentenced to a United States federal prison who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of a federal parole officer; a person serving a period of supervised community custody as defined by Penal Code section 3000, following a term of imprisonment in a state prison, who is under the supervision of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Adult Parole Operations; or an adult or juvenile sentenced to a term in the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Facilities (formerly known as the "California Youth Authority") who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Parole Operations.

c. Probationer. A person convicted of a felony who has received a suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order of conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of a probation officer, or a person convicted of a misdemeanor who has received a suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order of revocable release in the community subject to conditions established by the court without the supervision of a probation officer, as provided in Penal Code section 1203.

d. State-Licensed Residential Care Facility. A facility licensed by the State of California to provide residential care services, including those facilities described in Health & Safety Code sections 1250 et seq., 1500 et seq., 1568.01 et seq., 1569 et seq., 1760 et seq., and 11834.20 et seq. and those facilities described in Welfare and Institutions Code section 5116.

Section 2. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of Ordinance No. 348, this ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency measure and shall take effect upon its adoption. It shall be of no further force or effect ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the date of expiration of Ordinance No. 449.239, unless extended pursuant to law. In adopting this ordinance, the Board finds that parolee-probationer homes pose a current and immediate threat to the public health, safety and welfare for the following reasons:

Parolee-probationer homes are proliferating in Riverside County and the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation is increasingly placing parolees and probationers in the County even when they committed crimes in other counties and have no ties to the area;

Based on reports generated by various public agencies throughout California, parolee-probationer homes often result in increased criminal activity and generate a disproportionate number of requests for law enforcement services; this adversely affects other segments of the community needing such services and unduly imposes a burden on law enforcement services in general;

Parolee probationer homes often result in parking and noise problems and have other harmful secondary effects, such as encouraging the illegal conversion of garages and living spaces into sleeping spaces;

The harmful secondary effects associated with parolee-probationer homes may negatively affect surrounding home values and result in increased foreclosures and resident displacement;

Existing zoning regulations do not adequately regulate parolee-probationer homes and absent this ordinance, parolee-probationer homes could be located near schools, day care centers, parks, playgrounds and other sensitive uses.

Section 3. In adopting this ordinance, the Board finds each of the following: continued approval of the development of multi-family housing projects that parolee-probationers may occupy would have the specific, adverse impacts upon the public health or safety described in Section 2. of this ordinance; this ordinance is necessary to mitigate or avoid these specific, adverse impacts; and there is no feasible alternative to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the specific, adverse impacts as well or better, with a less burdensome or restrictive effect, than the adoption of this ordinance.

Section 4. In adopting this ordinance, the Board reports that the following measures have been taken to alleviate the condition which led to its adoption and the adoption of Ordinance No. 449.239: the Planning Department, in consultation with the Office of County Counsel, is studying and formulating regular zoning regulations, consistent with State law, that adequately regulate parolee-probationer homes and protect the public from their harmful secondary effects.

Section 5. The Clerk shall schedule a public hearing before the Board to consider any extension of this ordinance which shall normally be at its second regular meeting before expiration of the ten (10) month and fifteen (15) day period. The Clerk shall publish notice ten (10) days before the hearing. A public hearing need not, however, be scheduled if any of the following occurs: a regular zoning ordinance regulating parolee-probationer homes is adopted and effective before such expiration, this ordinance is repealed, or the Board otherwise orders.

Section 6. At or before the public hearing on any proposed extension, and at least ten (10) days prior to the expiration of this ordinance, the Board, in consultation with the Planning Director, shall issue a written report describing therein all measures taken to alleviate the condition which led to the adoption of this ordinance and Ordinance No. 449.239.

Any person affected by the above matter(s) may submit written comments to the Clerk of the Board before the hearing or may appear and be heard in support or opposition to the project at the time of the hearing. If you challenge the above item(s) in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence, to the Board of Supervisors at, or prior to, the public hearing.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing at which all interested persons will be heard, will be held before the Board of Supervisors of Riverside County, California, on the 1st Floor Board Chambers, County Administrative Center, 4080 Lemon Street, Riverside, on Tuesday, August 10, 2010 at 9:30 a.m. to consider adoption of the following ordinance:

ORDINANCE NO. 449.240

AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE EXTENDING URGENCY INTERIM

ORDINANCE NO. 449.239

PROHIBITING PAROLEE-PROBATIONER HOMES
The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside ordains as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of Ordinance No. 348 and, notwithstanding any provision of Ordinance No. 348 to the contrary, Ordinance No. 449.239 is hereby extended for ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the date of its expiration, during which time parolee-probationer homes are prohibited in the unincorporated area of Riverside County because they may be in conflict with a contemplated zoning proposal that the Planning Department is studying and because they may subject County residents to the adverse effects described in Section 2. of this ordinance. Until this ordinance, or any extension hereof, expires or is repealed, the County shall not issue a land use approval, a building permit or any other entitlement for a parolee-probationer home and no person shall operate a parolee-probationer home in the County. As used in this ordinance, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

a. Parolee-Probationer Home. Any residential building, or portion thereof, owned or operated by any person which houses two (2) or more parolee-probationers, unrelated by blood, marriage, or legal adoption, in exchange for monetary or non-monetary consideration given or paid by the parolee-probationers, or given or paid by any person on behalf of the parolee-probationers, excluding any state-licensed residential care facility serving six (6) or fewer persons. In determining whether a state-licensed residential care facility serves six (6) or fewer persons, the licensee, members of the licensee's family and persons employed as facility staff shall not be counted.

b. Parolee. A person convicted of a federal crime and sentenced to a United States federal prison who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of a federal parole officer; a person serving a period of supervised community custody as defined by Penal Code section 3000, following a term of imprisonment in a state prison, who is under the supervision of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Adult Parole Operations; or an adult or juvenile sentenced to a term in the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Facilities (formerly known as the "California Youth Authority") who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Parole Operations.

c. Probationer. A person convicted of a felony who has received a suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order of conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of a probation officer, or a person convicted of a misdemeanor who has received a suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order of revocable release in the community subject to conditions established by the court without the supervision of a probation officer, as provided in Penal Code section 1203.

d. State-Licensed Residential Care Facility. A facility licensed by the State of California to provide residential care services, including those facilities described in Health & Safety Code sections 1250 et seq., 1500 et seq., 1568.01 et seq., 1569 et seq., 1760 et seq., and 11834.20 et seq. and those facilities described in Welfare and Institutions Code section 5116.

Section 2. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of Ordinance No. 348, this ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency measure and shall take effect upon its adoption. It shall be of no further force or effect ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the date of expiration of Ordinance No. 449.239, unless extended pursuant to law. In adopting this ordinance, the Board finds that parolee-probationer homes pose a current and immediate threat to the public health, safety and welfare for the following reasons:

Parolee-probationer homes are proliferating in Riverside County and the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation is increasingly placing parolees and probationers in the County even when they committed crimes in other counties and have no ties to the area.

Based on reports generated by various public agencies throughout California, parolee-probationer homes often result in increased criminal activity and generate a disproportionate number of requests for law enforcement services; this adversely affects other segments of the community needing such services and unduly imposes a burden on law enforcement services in general.

Parolee probationer homes often result in parking and noise problems and have other harmful secondary effects, such as encouraging the illegal conversion of garages and living spaces into sleeping spaces.

The harmful secondary effects associated with parolee-probationer homes may negatively affect surrounding home values and result in increased foreclosures and resident displacement:

Existing zoning regulations do not adequately regulate parolee-probationer homes and absent this ordinance, parolee-probationer homes could be located near schools, day care centers, parks, playgrounds and other sensitive uses.

Section 3. In adopting this ordinance, the Board finds each of the following: continued approval of the development of multi-family housing projects that parolee-probationers may occupy would have the specific, adverse impacts upon the public health or safety described in Section 2. of this ordinance; this ordinance is necessary to mitigate or avoid these specific, adverse impacts; and there is no feasible alternative to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the specific, adverse impacts as well or better, with a less burdensome or restrictive effect, than the adoption of this ordinance.

Section 4. In adopting this ordinance, the Board reports that the following measures have been taken to alleviate the condition which led to its adoption and the adoption of Ordinance No. 449.239: the Planning Department, in consultation with the Office of County Counsel, is studying and formulating regular zoning regulations, consistent with State law, that adequately regulate parolee-probationer homes and protect the public from their harmful secondary effects.

Section 5. The Clerk shall schedule a public hearing before the Board to consider any extension of this ordinance which shall normally be at its second regular meeting before expiration of the ten (10) month and fifteen (15) day period. The Clerk shall publish notice ten (10) days before the hearing. A public hearing need not, however, be scheduled if any of the following occurs: a regular zoning ordinance regulating parolee-probationer homes is adopted and effective before such expiration, this ordinance is repealed, or the Board otherwise orders.

Section 6. At or before the public hearing on any proposed extension, and at least ten (10) days prior to the expiration of this ordinance, the Board, in consultation with the Planning Director, shall issue a written report describing therein all measures taken to alleviate the condition which led to the adoption of this ordinance and Ordinance No. 449.239.

Any person affected by the above matter(s) may submit written comments to the Clerk of the Board before the hearing or may appear and be heard in support or opposition to the project at the time of the hearing. If you challenge the above item(s) in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence, to the Board of Supervisors at, or prior to, the public hearing.

Please send all written correspondence to: Clerk of the Board, 4080 Lemon Street, 1st Floor, Post Office Box 1147, Riverside, CA 92502-1147

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

ORDINANCE NO. 449.240
AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE
EXTENDING URGENCY INTERIM ORDINANCE NO. 449.239
PROHIBITING PAROLEE-PROBATIONER HOMES

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside ordains as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of Ordinance No. 348 and, notwithstanding any provision of Ordinance No. 348 to the contrary, Ordinance No. 449.239 is hereby extended for ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the date of its expiration, during which time parolee-probationer homes are prohibited in the unincorporated area of Riverside County because they may be in conflict with a contemplated zoning proposal that the Planning Department is studying and because they may subject County residents to the adverse effects described in Section 2. of this ordinance. Until this ordinance, or any extension hereof, expires or is repealed, the County shall not issue a land use approval, a building permit or any other entitlement for a parolee-probationer home and no person shall operate a parolee-probationer home in the County. As used in this ordinance, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

a. Parolee-Probationer Home. Any residential building, or portion thereof, owned or operated by any person which houses two (2) or more parolee-probationers, unrelated by blood, marriage, or legal adoption, in exchange for monetary or non-monetary consideration given or paid by the parolee-probationers, or given or paid by any person on behalf of the parolee-probationers, excluding any state-licensed residential care facility serving six (6) or fewer persons. In determining whether a state-licensed residential care facility serves six (6) or fewer persons, the licensee, members of the licensee's family and persons employed as facility staff shall not be counted.

b. Parolee. A person convicted of a federal crime and sentenced to a United States federal prison who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of a federal parole officer; a person serving a period of supervised community custody as defined by Penal Code section 3000, following a term of imprisonment in a state prison, who is under the supervision of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Adult Parole Operations; or an adult or juvenile sentenced to a term in the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Facilities (formerly known as the "California Youth Authority") who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Parole Operations.

c. Probationer. A person convicted of a felony who has received a suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order of conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of a probation officer, or a person convicted of a misdemeanor who has received a suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order of revocable release in the community subject to conditions established by the court without the supervision of a probation officer, as provided in Penal Code section 1203.

d. State-Licensed Residential Care Facility. A facility licensed by the State of California to provide residential care services, including those facilities described in Health & Safety Code sections 1250 et seq., 1500 et seq., 1568.01 et seq., 1569 et seq., 1760 et seq., and 11834.20 et seq. and those facilities described in Welfare and Institutions Code section 5116.

Section 2. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of Ordinance No. 348, this ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency measure and shall take effect upon its adoption. It shall be of no further force or effect ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the date of expiration of Ordinance No. 449.239, unless extended pursuant to law. In adopting this ordinance, the Board finds that parolee-probationer homes pose a current and immediate threat to the public health, safety and welfare for the following reasons:

Parolee-probationer homes are proliferating in Riverside County as a result of new laws mandating the early release of certain state prisoners;

Riverside County can expect over 5,000 inmates to be paroled in the next twelve (12) months with ties to the area;

The California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation is increasingly placing parolees and probationers in the County even when they committed crimes in other counties and have no ties to the area;

Based on reports generated by various public agencies throughout California, parolee-probationer homes often result in increased criminal activity and generate a disproportionate number of requests for law enforcement services; this adversely affects other segments of the community needing such services and unduly imposes a burden on law enforcement services in general;

Parolee probationer homes often result in parking and noise problems and have other harmful secondary effects, such as encouraging the illegal conversion of garages and living spaces into sleeping spaces;

The harmful secondary effects associated with parolee-probationer homes may negatively affect surrounding home values and result in increased foreclosures and resident displacement;

Existing zoning regulations do not adequately regulate parolee-probationer homes and absent this ordinance, parolee-probationer homes could be located near schools, day care centers, parks, playgrounds and other sensitive uses.

Section 3. In adopting this ordinance, the Board finds each of the following: continued approval of the development of multi-family housing projects that parolee-probationers may occupy would have the specific, adverse impacts upon the public health or safety described in Section 2. of this ordinance; this ordinance is necessary to mitigate or avoid these specific, adverse impacts; and there is no feasible alternative to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the specific, adverse impacts as well or better, with a less burdensome or restrictive effect, than the adoption of this ordinance.

Section 4. In adopting this ordinance, the Board reports that the following measures have been taken to alleviate the condition which led to its adoption and the adoption of Ordinance No. 449.239: the Planning Department, in consultation with the Office of County Counsel, is currently engaged in a comprehensive revision of the County's zoning ordinance. As part of this comprehensive revision, the Planning Department is studying and formulating regular zoning regulations, consistent with State law, that adequately address parolee-probationer homes and protect the public from their harmful secondary effects. Planning Commission workshops regarding the revised zoning ordinance have been scheduled in October and December of this year.

Section 5. The Clerk shall schedule a public hearing before the Board to consider any extension of this ordinance which shall normally be at its second regular meeting before expiration of the ten (10) month and fifteen (15) day period. The Clerk shall publish notice ten (10) days before the hearing. A public hearing need not, however, be scheduled if any of the following occurs: a regular zoning ordinance addressing parolee-probationer homes is adopted and effective before such expiration, this ordinance is repealed, or the Board otherwise orders.

Section 6. At or before the public hearing on any proposed extension, and at least ten (10) days prior to the expiration of this ordinance, the Board, in consultation with the Planning Director, shall issue a written report describing therein all measures taken to alleviate the condition which led to the adoption of this ordinance and Ordinance No. 449.239.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

ORDINANCE NO. 449.240

AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE
EXTENDING URGENCY INTERIM ORDINANCE
NO. 449.239

PROHIBITING PAROLEE-PROBATIONER HOMES
The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside
ordains as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of Ordinance No. 348 and, notwithstanding any provision of Ordinance No. 348 to the contrary, Ordinance No. 449.239 is hereby extended for ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the date of its expiration, during which time parolee-probationer homes are prohibited in the unincorporated area of Riverside County because they may be in conflict with a contemplated zoning proposal that the Planning Department is studying and because they may subject County residents to the adverse effects described in Section 2. of this ordinance. Until this ordinance, or any extension hereof, expires or is repealed, the County shall not issue a land use approval, a building permit or any other entitlement for a parolee-probationer home and no person shall operate a parolee-probationer home in the County. As used in this ordinance, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

a. Parolee-Probationer Home. Any residential building, or portion thereof, owned or operated by any person which houses two (2) or more parolee-probationers, unrelated by blood, marriage, or legal adoption, in exchange for monetary or non-monetary consideration given or paid by the parolee-probationers, or given or paid by any person on behalf of the parolee-probationers, excluding any state-licensed residential care facility serving six (6) or fewer persons. In determining whether a state-licensed residential care facility serves six (6) or fewer persons, the licensee, members of the licensee's family and persons employed as facility staff shall not be counted.

b. Parolee. A person convicted of a federal crime and sentenced to a United States federal prison who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of a federal parole officer; a person serving a period of supervised community custody as defined by Penal Code section 3000, following a term of imprisonment in a state prison, who is under the supervision of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Adult Parole Operations; or an adult or juvenile sentenced to a term in the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Facilities (formerly known as the "California Youth Authority") who has received conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Parole Operations.

c. Probationer. A person convicted of a felony who has received a suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order of conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of a probation officer, or a person convicted of a misdemeanor who has received a suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and an order of revocable release in the community subject to conditions established by the court without the supervision of a probation officer, as provided in Penal Code section 1203.

d. State-Licensed Residential Care Facility. A facility licensed by the State of California to provide residential care services, including those facilities described in Health & Safety Code sections 1250 et seq., 1500 et seq., 1568.01 et seq., 1569 et seq., 1760 et seq., and 11834.20 et seq., and those facilities described in Welfare and Institutions Code section 5116.

Section 2. Pursuant to section 65858 of the Government Code and section 20.4 of Ordinance No. 348, this ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency measure and shall take effect upon its adoption. It shall be of no further force or effect ten (10) months and fifteen (15) days from the date of expiration of Ordinance No. 449.239, unless extended pursuant to law. In adopting this ordinance, the Board finds that parolee-probationer homes pose a current and immediate threat to the public health, safety and welfare for the following reasons:

Parolee-probationer homes are proliferating in Riverside County as a result of new laws mandating the early release of certain state prisoners;

Riverside County can expect over 5,000 inmates to be paroled in the next twelve (12) months with ties to the area;

The California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation is increasingly placing parolees and probationers in the County even when they committed crimes in other counties and have no ties to the area;

Based on reports generated by various public agencies throughout California, parolee-probationer homes often result in increased criminal activity and generate a disproportionate number of requests for law enforcement services; this adversely affects other segments of the community needing such services and unduly imposes a burden on law enforcement services in general;

Parolee probationer homes often result in parking and noise problems and have other harmful secondary effects, such as encouraging the illegal conversion of garages and living spaces into sleeping spaces;

The harmful secondary effects associated with parolee-probationer homes may negatively affect surrounding home values and result in increased foreclosures and resident displacement;

Existing zoning regulations do not adequately regulate parolee-probationer homes and absent this ordinance, parolee-probationer homes could be located near schools, day care centers, parks, playgrounds and other sensitive uses.

Section 3. In adopting this ordinance, the Board finds each of the following: continued approval of the development of multi-family housing projects that parolee-probationers may occupy would have the specific, adverse impacts upon the public health or safety described in Section 2. of this ordinance; this ordinance is necessary to mitigate or avoid these specific, adverse impacts; and there is no feasible alternative to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the specific, adverse impacts as well or better, with a less burdensome or restrictive effect, than the adoption of this ordinance.

Section 4. In adopting this ordinance, the Board reports that the following measures have been taken to alleviate the condition which led to its adoption and the adoption of Ordinance No. 449.239: the Planning Department, in consultation with the Office of County Counsel, is currently engaged in a comprehensive revision of the County's zoning ordinance. As part of this comprehensive revision, the Planning Department is studying and formulating regular zoning regulations, consistent with State law, that adequately address parolee-probationer homes and protect the public from their harmful secondary effects. Planning Commission workshops regarding the revised zoning ordinance have been scheduled in October and December of this year.

Section 5. The Clerk shall schedule a public hearing before the Board to consider any extension of this ordinance which shall normally be at its second regular meeting before expiration of the ten (10) month and fifteen (15) day period. The Clerk shall publish notice ten (10) days before the hearing. A public hearing need not, however, be scheduled if any of the following occurs: a regular zoning ordinance addressing parolee-probationer homes is adopted and effective before such expiration, this ordinance is repealed, or the Board otherwise orders.

Section 6. At or before the public hearing on any proposed extension, and at least ten (10) days prior to the expiration of this ordinance, the Board, in consultation with the Planning Director, shall issue a written report describing therein all measures taken to alleviate the condition which led to the adoption of this ordinance and Ordinance No. 449.239.
