The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside ordains as follows:

Section 2. PURPOSE. The purpose of this ordinance is to prohibit solicitation on County Property. This ordinance is not intended to prohibit or restrict noncommercial speech.

Section 4. DEFINITIONS. As used in this ordinance, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- 1

1 unincorporated or incorporated territory of the County. County Property
2 includes real property in the possession of a public or private entity under 3 contract with the County.

4 e. Person. Any individual, partnership, corporation, joint venture, firm, company,
5 association, group, body politic, or other entity, and any officer, employee,
6 agent, trustee, assignee or other representative thereof.

7 f. Solicitation. Any request, offer, enticement or action that announces the sale of 8 any product, service or property; or, any request, offer, enticement or action that 9 announces the availability for or of employment; or, any other commercial 10 activity. Solicitation shall occur whether or not a transaction is completed, an 11 exchange of money or other property takes place, an actual employment 12 relationship is created, or any other commercial activity is initiated.

13 Section 5. PROHIBITION. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in 14 solicitation on County Property, in any manner or for any purpose, except to the extent described herein.

15 Section 6. EXEMPTIONS. This ordinance shall not apply to any of the following:

- 16 a. Solicitation of any concession operated under authority granted by the Board.
17 b. Solicitation for County employee benefits.
18 c. Solicitation by any person having business with or calling upon the County in 19 the ordinary course of County business.
20 d. Solicitation for the benefit of a recognized, qualified charitable or non-profit 21 organization in support of charitable programs that has been authorized by the 22 Board.
23 e. Any other solicitation that has been specifically authorized, regulated or 24 exempted by order or resolution of the Board, or its authorized designee.

25 Section 7. VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES. Any person violating any provision of 26 this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of an infraction or misdemeanor as hereinafter specified. Such 27 person shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each and every day or portion thereof during 28 which any violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance is committed, continued, or permitted.

1 Violations of this ordinance may be prosecuted by county authorities in the name of the people of the 2 State of California. Any person convicted of violating this ordinance shall be: (1) guilty of an infraction
3 offense and punished by a fine not exceeding on hundred dollars ($100) for a first violation; (2) guilty of 4 an infraction offense and punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) for a second
5 violation. The third and any additional violations shall constitute a misdemeanor offense and shall be 6 punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or six (6) months in jail, or both.
7 Notwithstanding the above, a first offense may be charged and prosecuted as a misdemeanor. The 8 penalties herein are in addition to any other remedies provided by law and the payment of any penalty
9 herein shall not relieve a person of the obligation to correct the violation.

10 Section 8. INITIAL PHASE-IN PERIOD. Notwithstanding the above, for ninety (90)
11 days following the Effective Date of this ordinance, not to exceed one hundred twenty (120) days from 12 the date this ordinance was adopted, shall allow for an Initial Phase-In Period whereby enforcement of 13 this ordinance shall be stayed and only verbal warnings will be given to a person found in violation of this 14 ordinance. On the ninety-first (91st) day following the Effective Date, the Initial Phase-In Period will 15 expire, unless additional time has been ordered by the Board.

16 Section 9. SEVERABILITY. If any provision, clause, sentence or paragraph of this
17 ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be held invalid, such invalidity
18 shall not affect the other provisions of this ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid
19 provision or application, and to this end, the provisions of this ordinance are hereby declared to be 20 severable.

21 \\\

23 \\\

1 Section 10. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance shall take effect thirty (30) days after 2 its adoption.

Project Name: Adoption of Ordinance 906

Project Number: FM042155

Project Location: County-wide

Description of Project: The purpose of this ordinance is to prohibit unauthorized solicitation on County Property by any person and to provide for enforcement of the ordinance by the County, including public safety personnel. Unauthorized solicitation on County property may obstruct, interfere or conflict with the use of such property for proper governmental purposes and may create a health and/or safety hazard within, about, or upon such property.

Ordinance No. 906 is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Section 15061(b)(3) as it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility the activity in question may have a significant effect on the environment. The County's approval of this proposed ordinance does not create any reasonably foreseeable physical change in the environment; it only prohibits solicitation.

Name of Public Agency Approving Project: County of Riverside, Economic Development Agency

Name of Person or Agency Carrying Out Project: County of Riverside, Economic Development Agency

Exempt Status: California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Guidelines, General Rule Exemption Section 15061

Reasons Why Project is Exempt: The project is exempt from the provisions of CEQA specifically by CEQA Guidelines:

- Section 15061 (b) (3)- With certainty, there is no possibility that the adoption of Ordinance 906 will have a significant effect on the environment.

BACKGROUND:

The purpose of this ordinance is to prohibit unauthorized solicitation on County property by any person and to provide for enforcement of the ordinance by public safety personnel. In addition to County employees, the residents of the County and the general public at large regularly use such property for its intended purposes. Unauthorized solicitation on County property may obstruct, interfere or conflict with the use of such property for proper governmental purposes and may create a health and/or safety hazard within, about, or upon such property.

Ordinance No. 906 is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Section 15061(b)(3) as it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility the activity in question may have a significant effect on the environment. The County's approval of this proposed ordinance does not create any reasonably foreseeable physical change in the environment; it only prohibits solicitation.

County Counsel has approved this ordinance as to form.

FINANCIAL DATA:

The estimated cost of preparing, processing and implementing this ordinance is approximately $10,000 which will be paid by the Economic Development Agency – Facilities Management budget. The costs of enforcing the ordinance where the assistance from the Sheriff's Department would be warranted is currently undetermined, but conceivably a minimal amount.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

ORDINANCE NO. 906
AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE
PROHIBITING SOLICITATION ON COUNTY PROPERTY

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside ordains as follows:

Section 1. FINDINGS. The Board of Supervisors finds that unauthorized solicitation on County Property may obstruct, interfere or conflict with the use of such property for proper governmental purposes and may create a health and/or safety hazard within, about, or upon such property.

Section 2. PURPOSE. The purpose of this ordinance is to prohibit solicitation on County Property. This ordinance is not intended to prohibit or restrict noncommercial speech.

Section 3. AUTHORITY. This ordinance is adopted pursuant to Government Code Section 23004, which authorizes counties to manage County Property, and pursuant to Article XI, Section 7 of the California Constitution which authorizes counties to make and enforce within their limits all local, police, sanitary and other ordinances and regulations not in conflict with general laws that serve to protect the health, safety and welfare of its residents.

Section 4. DEFINITIONS. As used in this ordinance, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- a. Board. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside.
- b. Commercial Activity. Any activity designed to market or advertise products, services, or property; or activity to generate revenue for a person or entity other than the County, or any activity or action undertaken in whole or in part by a person or entity whose purpose, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, is to derive or realize a present or future financial gain for the person or entity.
- c. County. The County of Riverside, any of its Agencies, Departments or any associated Districts, and any officer or employee thereof.
- d. County Property. Real property, buildings and facilities owned, leased, subleased or otherwise licensed by or to the County, or real property subject to the use and control of the County, whether such property is within the unincorporated or incorporated territory of the County. County Property includes real property in the possession of a public or private entity under contract with the County.
- e. Person. Any individual, partnership, corporation, joint venture, firm, company, association, group, body politic, or other entity, and any officer, employee, agent, trustee, assignee or other representative thereof.
- f. Solicitation. Any request, offer, enticement or action that announces the sale of any product, service or property; or, any request, offer, enticement or action that announces the availability for or of employment; or, any other commercial activity. Solicitation shall occur whether or not a transaction is completed, an exchange of money or other property takes place, an actual employment relationship is created, or any other commercial activity is initiated.

Section 5. PROHIBITION. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in solicitation on County Property, in any manner or for any purpose, except to the extent described herein.

Section 6. EXEMPTIONS. This ordinance shall not apply to any of the following:

- a. Solicitation of any concession operated under authority granted by the Board.
- b. Solicitation for County employee benefits.
- c. Solicitation by any person having business with or calling upon the County in the ordinary course of County business.

- d. Solicitation for the benefit of a recognized, qualified charitable or non-profit organization in support of charitable programs that has been authorized by the Board.
- e. Any other solicitation that has been specifically authorized, regulated or exempted by order or resolution of the Board, or its authorized designee.

Section 7. VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of an infraction or misdemeanor as hereinafter specified. Such person shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each and every day or portion thereof during which any violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance is committed, continued, or permitted. Violations of this ordinance may be prosecuted by county authorities in the name of the people of the State of California. Any person convicted of violating this ordinance shall be: (1) guilty of an infraction offense and punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) for a first violation; (2) guilty of an infraction offense and punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) for a second violation. The third and any additional violations shall constitute a misdemeanor offense and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or six (6) months in jail, or both. Notwithstanding the above, a first offense may be charged and prosecuted as a misdemeanor. The penalties herein are in addition to any other remedies provided by law and the payment of any penalty herein shall not relieve a person of the obligation to correct the violation.

Section 8. INITIAL PHASE-IN PERIOD. Notwithstanding the above, for ninety (90) days following the Effective Date of this ordinance, not to exceed one hundred twenty (120) days from the date this ordinance was adopted, shall allow for an Initial Phase-In Period whereby enforcement of this ordinance shall be stayed and only verbal warnings will be given to a person found in violation of this ordinance. On the ninety-first (91st) day following the Effective Date, the Initial Phase-In Period will expire, unless additional time has been ordered by the Board.

Section 9. SEVERABILITY. If any provision, clause, sentence or paragraph of this ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the other provisions of this ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end, the provisions of this ordinance are hereby declared to be severable.

Section 10. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance shall take effect thirty (30) days after its adoption.

Bob Buster, Chairman of the Board

I HEREBY CERTIFY that at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of said County, held on June 14, 2011, the foregoing Ordinance consisting of ten (10) sections was adopted by said Board by the following vote:

- a. Board. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside.
- b. Commercial Activity. Any activity designed to market or advertise products, services, or property; or activity to generate revenue for a person or entity other than the County, or any activity or action undertaken in whole or in part by a person or entity whose purpose, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, is to derive or realize a present or future financial gain for the person or entity.
- c. County. The County of Riverside, any of its Agencies, Departments or any associated Districts, and any officer or employee thereof.
- d. County Property. Real property, buildings and facilities owned, leased, subleased or otherwise licensed by or to the County, or real property subject to the use and control of the County, whether such property is within the unincorporated or incorporated territory of the County. County Property includes real property in the possession of a public or private entity under contract with the County.
- e. Person. Any individual, partnership, corporation, joint venture, firm, company, association, group, body politic, or other entity, and any officer, employee, agent, trustee, assignee or other representative thereof.
- f. Solicitation. Any request, offer, enticement or action that announces the sale of any product, service or property; or, any request, offer, enticement or action that announces the availability for or of employment; or, any other commercial activity. Solicitation shall occur whether or not a transaction is completed, an exchange of money or other property takes place, an actual employment relationship is created, or any other commercial activity is initiated.

Section 5. PROHIBITION. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in solicitation on County Property, in any manner or for any purpose, except to the extent described herein.

Section 6. EXEMPTIONS. This ordinance shall not apply to any of the following:

- a. Solicitation of any concession operated under authority granted by the Board.
- b. Solicitation for County employee benefits.
- c. Solicitation by any person having business with or calling upon the County in the ordinary course of County business.
- d. Solicitation for the benefit of a recognized, qualified charitable or non-profit organization in support of charitable programs that has been authorized by the Board.
- e. Any other solicitation that has been specifically authorized, regulated or exempted by order or resolution of the Board, or its authorized designee.

Section 7. VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of an infraction or misdemeanor as hereinafter specified. Such person shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each and every day or portion thereof during which any violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance is committed, continued, or permitted. Violations of this ordinance may be prosecuted by county authorities in the name of the people of the State of California. Any person convicted of violating this ordinance shall be: (1) guilty of an infraction offense and punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) for a first violation; (2) guilty of an infraction offense and punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) for a second violation. The third and any additional violations shall constitute a misdemeanor offense and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or six (6) months in jail, or both. Notwithstanding the above, a first offense may be charged and prosecuted as a misdemeanor. The penalties herein are in addition to any other remedies provided by law and the payment of any penalty herein shall not relieve a person of the obligation to correct the violation.

Section 8. INITIAL PHASE-IN PERIOD. Notwithstanding the above, for ninety (90) days following the Effective Date of this ordinance, not to exceed one hundred twenty (120) days from the date this ordinance was adopted, shall allow for an Initial Phase-In Period whereby enforcement of this ordinance shall be stayed and only verbal warnings will be given to a person found in violation of this ordinance. On the ninety-first (91st) day following the Effective Date, the Initial Phase-In Period will expire, unless additional time has been ordered by the Board.

Section 9. SEVERABILITY. If any provision, clause, sentence or paragraph of this ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the other provisions of this ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end, the provisions of this ordinance are hereby declared to be severable.

Section 10. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance shall take effect thirty (30) days after its adoption.

No 2110
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

ORDINANCE NO. 906
AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE PROHIBITING SOLICITATION ON COUNTY PROPERTY

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside ordains as follows:

Section 1. FINDINGS. The Board of Supervisors finds that unauthorized solicitation on County Property may obstruct, interfere or conflict with the use of such property for proper governmental purposes and may create a health and/or safety hazard within, about, or upon such property.

Section 2. PURPOSE. The purpose of this ordinance is to prohibit solicitation on County Property. This ordinance is not intended to prohibit or restrict noncommercial speech.

Section 3. AUTHORITY. This ordinance is adopted pursuant to Government Code Section 23004, which authorizes counties to manage County Property; and pursuant to Article XI, Section 7 of the California Constitution which authorizes counties to make and enforce within their limits all local, police, sanitary and other ordinances and regulations not in conflict with general laws that serve to protect the health, safety and welfare of its residents.

Section 4. DEFINITIONS. As used in this ordinance, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

a. Board. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside.

b. Commercial Activity. Any activity designed to market or advertise products, services, or property; or activity to generate revenue for a person or entity other than the County, or any activity or action undertaken in whole or in part by a person or entity whose purpose, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, is to derive or realize a present or future financial gain for the person or entity.

c. County. The County of Riverside, any of its Agencies, Departments or any associated Districts, and any officer or employee thereof.

d. County Property. Real property, buildings and facilities owned, leased, subleased or otherwise licensed by or to the County, or real property subject to the use and control of the County, whether such property is within the unincorporated or incorporated territory of the County. County Property includes real property in the possession of a public or private entity under contract with the County.

e. Person. Any individual, partnership, corporation, joint venture, firm, company, association, group, body politic, or other entity, and any officer, employee, agent, trustee, assignee or other representative thereof.

f. Solicitation. Any request, offer, enticement or action that announces the sale of any product, service or property; or, any request, offer, enticement or action that announces the availability for or of employment; or, any other commercial activity. Solicitation shall occur whether or not a transaction is completed, an exchange of money or other property takes place, an actual employment relationship is created, or any other commercial activity is initiated.

Section 5. PROHIBITION. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in solicitation on County Property, in any manner or for any purpose, except to the extent described herein.

Section 6. EXEMPTIONS. This ordinance shall not apply to any of the following:

a. Solicitation of any concession operated under authority granted by the Board.

b. Solicitation for County employee benefits.

c. Solicitation by any person having business with or calling upon the County in the ordinary course of County business.

d. Solicitation for the benefit of a recognized, qualified charitable or non-profit organization in support of charitable programs that has been authorized by the Board.

e. Any other solicitation that has been specifically authorized, regulated or exempted by order or resolution of the Board, or its authorized designee.

Section 7. VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of an infraction or misdemeanor as hereinafter specified. Such person shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each and every day or portion thereof during which any violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance is committed, continued, or permitted. Violations of this ordinance may be prosecuted by county authorities in the name of the people of the State of California. Any person convicted of violating this ordinance shall be: (1) guilty of an infraction offense and punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) for a first violation; (2) guilty of an infraction offense and punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) for a second violation. The third and any additional violations shall constitute a misdemeanor offense and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or six (6) months in jail, or both. Notwithstanding the above, a first offense may be charged and prosecuted as a misdemeanor. The penalties herein are in addition to any other remedies provided by law and the payment of any penalty herein shall not relieve a person of the obligation to correct the violation.

Section 8. INITIAL PHASE-IN PERIOD. Notwithstanding the above, for ninety (90) days following the Effective Date of this ordinance, not to exceed one hundred twenty (120) days from the date this ordinance was adopted, shall allow for an Initial Phase-In Period wherein enforcement of this ordinance shall be limited to the following:

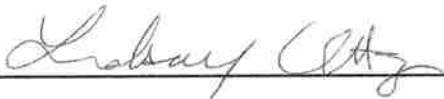

I am over the age of 18 years old, a citizen of the United States and not a party to, or have interest in this matter.
