FORM 11: APPROVAL OF SOLE SOURCE AGREEMENT WITH LEXISNEXIS FOR ONLINE
SUBSCRIPTION SERVICES FOR THE LAW OFFICES OF THE PUBLIC DEFENDER

BACKGROUND

The Law Offices of the Public Defender and the Capital Defender Office require access to online database research for the legal resources of various law libraries, public records, news, precedent setting court cases, real property, and business information. The LexisNexis database provides essential information to the Attorneys, Investigators, and Paralegals, and according to County Ordinance 459.4, subscriptions to publications are exempt from the bid process.

The program is essential to all our attorneys as we no longer exclusively rely on books for legal resources. Legal reference books can also be more costly to order and update than the service LexisNexis provides the Department. We cannot find the law or perform effective legal research on any given issue without the LexisNexis program. Under standards applicable to modern day representation of criminal defendants, a law firm cannot provide competent representation without a legal search program like LexisNexis or West Law. Under the State Bar Act and Rules of Professional Conduct we are required to make ourselves competent in the representation of those accused of crime. Doing criminal defense work without the ability to research and find the law is prima facie incompetent representation (See Cal. Rules of Prof. Cond., rule 3-110 [member must be competent in (1) diligence, (2) learning, and (3) skill].) Further, competent representation of those accused of crime is mandated by the State and Federal Constitutions. A failure to provide competent representation due to the inability to research and find the law could result in lawsuits for incompetency of counsel. Both the District Attorney and County Counsel also rely upon either LexisNexis or West Law legal programs.

The Law Offices of the Public Defender is receiving a government discount of approximately 30% off the published pricing. This is due to the flat rate price for a bundle of individual menus for legal and investigative applications.

REVIEW/APPROVAL

Purchasing concurs with this request. County Counsel has reviewed the agreement as to form.

Via: Purchasing Agent
Subject: Sole Source Procurement; Request for: Online Subscription

The below information is provided in support of my Department requesting approval for a sole source. Outside of a duly declared emergency, the time to develop a statement of work or specifications is not in itself justification for sole source.

Supply/Service being requested: Online Subscription

Supplier being requested: LexisNexis

Alternative suppliers that can or might be able to provide supply/service: West Law provides a similar service.

Extent of market search conducted: Exempt under Ordinance 459.4.

Unique features of the supply/service being requested from this supplier, which no alternative supplier can provide: This service provides a combination of data features and services on a secure, Web-based interface. Our office has been using the LexisNexis service for the past six year and it works well with our workflow.

Reasons why my department requires these unique features and what benefit will accrue to the county: This service is a vital resource for attorneys, paralegals and investigators for legal research and investigating case information.

Price Reasonableness:

The Law Offices of the Public Defender is receiving a government discount of approximately 30% off the published pricing. This is due to the flat rate price for a bundle of individual menus for legal and investigative applications.

Public Defender's Office:

$45,204 for each year for the first 3 fiscal years with a consumer price index increase thereafter

Capital Defender's Office:

$3,624 for each year for the first 3 fiscal years with a consumer price index increase thereafter

Does moving forward on this product or service further obligate the county to future similar contractual arrangements? No
