Barnes, a 71-year-old resident of Desert Hot Springs, for the past 10 years, whose love of jokes, witty one-liners, and imitations of famous people brought joy and laughter to the lives of everyone he came in contact with.

Barry, the oldest of five children to John and Alice Barnes, was born in Massachusetts on April 2, 1940, right before the start of World World II. After 19 years of dedicated service with Lever Brothers in Los Angeles, Barry spent quality time travelling with Uschi, before retiring at the Pine Cove RV Park in Lewiston on the banks of Lewiston Lake with a beautiful of Mount Shasta. Because of his ongoing battle with cancer and desire to be near their grandchildren, they relocated to Desert Hot Springs.

Barry was a loving husband, grandfather, uncle, brother, and friend who also enjoyed golf and playing slot machines at the local casinos. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew him. He will be deeply missed.
