Dep't Recomm.:
 Per Exec. Ofc.:

Approve the First Amendment with Lavender Hill Farms and the County of Riverside Department of Animal Services for equine boarding services of horses being held for cruelty cases

PRICE REASONABLENESS:

These costs have been figured on a non-profit basis for feed, healthcare and upkeep. The cost to board each equine is $7.50 per day/per animal. This includes: a feeding twice a day, cleaning stalls daily; 7 days a week.

Supplemental feedings per veterinary instructions may be needed due to health issues and is an additional $2.00 per day/per equine. Supplies such as: fly spray, medications, salts, grain, vitamins, and miscellaneous equine health items are not to exceed $300 per month without written approval by Riverside County Veterinarian. The trimming of hooves at $45 per equine; every 6-8 weeks is recognized to be standard practice or sooner if needed. Shoes are $80 per equine and only if given prior approval by Riverside County Veterinarian.

Services are not to exceed $60,000 annually as designated by a Form 11 signed by the Board of Supervisors. The department contacted additional boarding facilities to determine reasonable pricing and found pricing for board and feed to range between $11.50 and $16.00 a day. Lavender Hill Farms is offering the County a substantially lower rate than the current market.

FINANICAL:

This will come out of the Department of Animal Services budget.
