SUBJECT: Presentation of Proclamation Commemorating Riverside County Volunteer Week and Presentation of Plaques

RECOMMENDED MOTION: The Riverside County Board of Supervisors declare the week of April 15 – 21, 2012, as Riverside County Volunteer Week, in conjunction with National Volunteer Week.

BACKGROUND: Since 1983, the Riverside County Council of Volunteers (RCCV) has sponsored an annual recognition of volunteers to Riverside County departments. This is done in April of each year in conjunction with National Volunteer Week. The RCCV member departments are Animal Services, Community Action Partnership, Mental Health, Office on Aging, Public Health and Riverside County Regional Medical Center. Each member department recognizes their Volunteer of the Year, and each is honored by the Board of Supervisors at a regularly scheduled meeting in the month of April. The volunteers are then honored at a breakfast which is held on site at the County Administrative Center.
