On motion of Supervisor Tavaglione, seconded by Supervisor Benoit, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, July 31, 2012, be adjourned in memory of Harry Eisen, a 95-year-old Polish-born Holocaust survivor who came to the United States in 1948 and founded Norco Ranch Inc., which became one of the leading egg producers, processors, and distributors in the state.

Harry was a loving family man and friend who will always be remembered as a true humanitarian who donated eggs and money to many causes and an "excellent and humane businessman who helped boost the local economy by employing thousands of workers and running a cage-free operation." His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Harry Eisen.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on

On motion of Supervisor Ashley, seconded by Supervisor Tavaglione, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, July 31, 2012, be adjourned in memory of Virginia Wyatt Denney-Fox, a former Perris City Councilwoman and Mayor.

Born in 1926, Virginia moved from Los Angeles to Perris in 1978 and worked for Avon Products Inc. for 25 years. After retiring in 1993, she was elected to the Perris City Council and became an instrumental force in the community. Often speaking out against increased development, she was a "woman of conviction" who will not only be remembered for her contributions to the City of Perris but for her "glorious hat collections."

Virginia was also a member of St. James Catholic Church, the Soroptimists, the Perris Valley Chamber of Commerce, and Citizens for Political Reform. Her memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Virginia Wyatt Denney-Fox.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on

On motion of Supervisor Buster, seconded by Supervisor Tavaglione, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, July 31, 2012, is adjourned in memory of J. Michael Palmer, a resident of the Decker Canyon area of Riverside County near El Cariso who will always be remembered for his selfless dedication to improving fire services in Riverside County.

A "great man" and "superior firefighter," Mike retired as a fire captain from the Orange County Fire Department in June 1986 and served as an active volunteer firefighter with Riverside County Fire Department until 2008. As an instrumental force in the community, he was a member of the Southwest Fire Safe Council and was involved in the Wildland Firefighter Memorial, Los Pino's Conservation Camp, LEAP's (Lake Elsinore Advanced Pump Storage), and numerous fire prevention and education activities since 1974. He was also appointed to the Riverside County Fire Hazard Reduction Task Force and recognized by Riverside County Board of Supervisors for his efforts and commitment to fire prevention and safe evacuation measures.

Mike was a devoted family man whose memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be greatly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of J. Michael Palmer.
