BACKGROUND:

On March 27, 2012, the Board of Supervisors approved to accept a funding award from the Corrections Standards Authority for the East County Detention Center. The Riverside County Operational Area Alternate Emergency Operations Center (AEOC), which is located in the basement of the County Administrative Center in Indio, will need to be relocated to allow for the construction of the East County Detention Facility. Once the project has been properly described and an architect selection process completed, the Economic Development Agency will return to the Board in accordance with applicable Board policies as required for the project.

The Economic Development Agency is seeking the approval of funds and will return to the Board to execute any project related agreements.
