Adams served recall at Schwarzenegger fundraiser

NATASHA LINDSTROM Staff Writer

GLENDORA • Former state GOP Chairman Mike Schroeder served Assemblyman Anthony Adams with a recall notice on Wednesday evening, about an hour before Adams began his fundraiser headlined by Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger.

"I handed Adams the petition, he reached out and took it, and I said, 'On behalf of the taxpayers of the 59th Assembly District, let the games begin,'" said Schroeder, who delivered the notice of intention to recall Adams, R-Hesperia, just before 5 p.m.

Recall co-chairs Schroeder and Lee Lowrey, chairman of the conservative Atlas PAC, seek to oust Adams primarily for signing a no-tax pledge but voting in favor of a budget that includes $12.5 billion in state tax increases.

"The second reason is the budget's still not balanced, even with this massive tax increase, because we haven't cut spending enough," Schroeder said. "We want to get someone in there who's going to vote against any more new taxes."

Adams defends his budget vote as a "necessary evil" to pass a budget in both houses. He said he is against any new taxes to close shortfalls beyond the $41 billion shortfall patched in February.

The Schroeder-Lowrey recall effort has already raised about $70,000 through its Web site, RecallAdams.org, Schroeder said. He estimates the drive needs $60,000 more to ensure success.

There are several nascent efforts to recall the six Republicans who backed the budget.

Hesperia community activist E.T. Snell has already served Adams and Schwarzenegger with initial recall notices deemed valid by the Secretary of State. Snell's PAC, early in its fundraising efforts, has its own Web site, RecallCalifornia.com.

Only two recalls of California legislators have been successful since 1914 — both in 1995 — and Schroeder chaired both efforts.

POLYGRAPH EXAMINER:	Joe Delia

The purpose of this Quality Control and Assurance Report is to render an unbiased opinion, based on my independent review and "blind score" of the above indicated polygraph examination.

On November 20, 2010 I received polygraph charts and question sets from Joe Delia, a private polygraph examiner. I reviewed the polygraph charts and question sets in order to render an opinion on the outcome of the examination as well as to assure that the polygraph examination was valid, based on the polygraph industry's current standards.

After completing my Quality Review and Assurance of the collected charts, it is my opinion that the subject of this polygraph examination was being truthful when answering the below questions with a "NO" response:

"Did you falsified your written statement to me today?"

"Did you lie to me today when you denied falsifying your written statement to me today at the NCCF Jail?"
