SUBJECT: Acceptance of funding and approval of the amendment with RCCD to establish a Physician Assistant Mental Health Fellowship Program

BACKGROUND:

The RCCD and RCRMC Family Practice Physicians have established an integrated physician assistant training program to ensure physician assistant students receive an appropriate wide variety of clinical experiences to assure physician assistant students are fully trained. In an effort to continue to meet the needs for the RCCD Physician Assistant training program, RCCD and RCRMC have agreed to continue to provide clinical training and experience in Psychiatry health care services to the graduate physician assistants enrolled in the RCCD mental health fellowship program.

This fellowship program will provide on-site education and training to a maximum of three (3) graduate physician assistants, per fellowship rotation, for the care of patients in the clinical field of psychiatry. RCRMC will continue to meet with RCCD to develop and operate the program incorporating the principles of the Medical Health Services Act.

REVIEW/APPROVAL:

This amendment has been approved as to form by County Counsel.
