

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Stone, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, March 19, 2013, be adjourned in memory of Michael McQueeny, an 84-year-old resident of Palm Springs and local gallery owner who will always be remembered for his "friendly nature, love of animals, easy smile, dry wit, and colorful personality."

Born in Illinois, Michael earned his BA in History from the University of Chicago and a Master of Arts from the University of Arizona. After serving in the Military and briefly teaching high school, he moved to California, where he met his long-time partner, Ralph Fisher. Together, they opened Michael's Custom Framing & Gallery on Robertson Boulevard in West Hollywood, which was a favorite of celebrities, designers, and set decorators for over 40 years.

At the young age of 80, Michael closed his Los Angeles gallery and "retired" to Palm Springs, where he opened another gallery and became an instrumental force in the Uptown Design District. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Michael McQueeny.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on March 19, 2013 of Supervisors Minutes.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Stone, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, March 19, 2013, be adjourned in memory of Patrick McGrew, a prominent resident, architect, and author of Palm Springs whose "skill, expertise, and knowledge of the Desert's architectural past had no equal."

Born and raised in Oklahoma City, Patrick received his degree in architecture from the University of Oklahoma and moved to San Francisco in 1965. As a recognized architect specializing in historic preservation for over 45 years, his projects included the restoration of San Francisco's Historic City Club as well as the terracotta-clad offices of 20 California Street. He authored many books, including Landmarks of San Francisco and The Historic Houses of Presidio Terrace and was appointed to the San Francisco Landmarks Board, serving as President for 14 years.

In 2005, Patrick moved to Palm Springs, where he became an instrumental force in the community. His emphasis on establishing the architectural pedigree of the town's Spanish and mid-century architecture and "scrupulous research methodology" brought noteworthy attention to his work. He also served on the City's Historic Site Preservation Board, the Architectural Advisory Committee, the Palm Springs Preservation Society, and was Chair of the Palm Springs Art Museum's Architecture and Design Committee at the time of his death.

Patrick is survived by his life-partner of 25 years, author and actor, Robert Julian Stone. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Patrick McGrew.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Stone, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, March 19, 2013, be adjourned in memory of Kevin Edward Nay, a 52-year-old prominent resident of Palm Springs who will always be remembered for his "warm gregarious personality and sense of humor and style."

Born July 12, 1960 in Berkeley, California, Kevin's family moved to Porterville when he was 12 years old. A 1978 graduate of Porterville High School, he spent a year in Kenya as an exchange student with American Field Service and learned Swahilian and an appreciation for international travel for students and adults.

When he returned from Africa, Kevin attended various colleges prior to settling in Palm Springs, where he became an inspirational force in the community. After starting a small business with a partner selling hand-decorated clothing, he went into employee benefits consulting and founded Advantage Benefits, which offers insurance and retirement services to small businesses and individuals. As an active participant in various organizations, he was a member of the Rotary Club of Palms Springs and helped place exchange students with families in the area, in addition to volunteering as a youth sports coach and referee.

Kevin was a loving family man, father, and friend whose memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.
