BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION:

Sonia Nunez, Human Resources Manager, McLane Foodservice, has expressed and interested in becoming a Workforce Investment Board (WIB) private sector member for District V. Ms Nunez is very active in her community as a youth mentor and serves on several boards. Ms. Nunez has worked for McLane sixteen years. Her current position in Human Resources places her in many leadership roles and she serves as a strategic partner in the food service business.

Ms. Nunez wants to serve on the WIB to represent the interests and concerns of private sector employers and the Human Resources community in the Inland Empire areas. With the technology advancements in today's work place, Ms. Nunez has noticed the challenges to employers in finding skilled workers. She also hopes to partner with Riverside County to find ways to overcome the obstacles in the training and development of knowledge, skills and abilities in the Inland recruitment pool of workers. Ms. Nunez hopes that participation in the WIB will allow her to find ways to bridge the gaps between job seekers and jobs.
