BACKGROUND: Community Improvement Designation funds will be given to the following organizations:

1. Casa Blanca Home of Neighborly Service-$2,000 to support the Computer Learning Center and Literacy Program, a one year after school program geared to improving students' literacy skills. 50 students from Casa Blanca in grades 1-12 will benefit from this program.
2. The Unforgettables Foundation-$1,000 to support their Burial Project which provides funding to families who cannot afford a proper burial for their child.
3. City of Riverside-Parks, Recreation and Community Service Department -$500 to support the 2013 Mariachi Festival in the City of Riverside. This is a 2-day festival which includes live performances by various mariachi bands, food and novelty vendors, a ballet folkloric dance competition and showcase demonstrations, an art contest and a Wild and Mild Salsa Recipe Contest.
4. Riverside Transit Agency-$300 to assist with the luncheon costs of the Transportation Now Meetings. These funds will assist with providing lunch for three meetings.
