BACKGROUND:

County Service Area (CSA) 93 was formed in 1972 to operate and maintain park and recreation facilities and services in the Moreno Valley area. The City of Moreno Valley incorporated on December 3, 1984 and assumed the primary service function and responsibilities of CSA 93.

Much of the territory left in CSA 93 is within the Box Springs Mountain Reserve and the Lake Perris Recreation Area and will not be developed. All the developed parks that CSA 93 was formed to provide funding for are now within the boundaries of the City of Moreno Valley. What remains of CSA 93 no longer has any services to provide.

1 approval of LAFCO concerning the dissolution of CSA 93. LAFCO will 2 promptly notify the County of Riverside of any such claim, action, or 3 proceedings against LAFCO and will cooperate fully in the defense. If

16 Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA") review under CEQA Guidelines sections 15320 and 17 15061(b)(3) because it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the dissolution 18 of CSA 93 will have a significant effect on the environment and because it is a change in the 19 organization or reorganization of a local government agency where the change does not change 20 the geographical area in which the previously existing powers are exercised.

21 NOW, THEREFORE, this Resolution is hereby adopted and approved by the Riverside
