

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Stone, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, November 26, 2013, be adjourned in memory of Alex Calderwood, a 47-year-old Seattle co-founder of the "hip" Ace Hotel Chain who will always be remembered as a "teacher, mentor, guru, and dear friend."

Alex was an entrepreneur and knew how to entertain. In 1993, Alex and two partners started a Seattle chain of rock-themed barbershops called Rudy's. The stores were a hit, and there are now eight of them in Seattle and nine others spread through in Portland, New York, and Los Angeles. He then went on to open a popular Seattle nightclub before becoming a "hotelier."

In 1999, Alex and two friends launched Seattle's Ace Hotel in a flophouse that formerly served maritime workers. Ace Hotels later opened in Portland, Oregon, New York, Palm Springs, and London, with others scheduled to open in Panama City, Panama, and Los Angeles.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Alex Calderwood.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on November 26, 2013 of Supervisors Minutes.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Stone, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, November 26, 2013, be adjourned in memory of Charles Howard "Chuck" Brock Sr., an 83-year-old resident who will always be remembered as a "highly skilled, ethical, and respected lawyer."

After serving two years in the United States Army, Chuck earned his law degree from Hastings College of Law in San Francisco. In 1957, he was admitted to the California Bar and began a "brilliant career" with the San Jose Office of Hoge, Fenton, Jones & Appel.

A true humanitarian, "Chuck's true passions outside of the law were horses, traveling, singing, acting, and being of service." In addition to his "thriving" law practice, he served on numerous boards, including Sharon Heights Golf and Country Club, La Quinta Country Club, the Woodside Village Church, and the Los Altos Hunt Pony Club. He also served on the Board of Governors of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers, Northern California, and was listed in the "Best Lawyers in America."

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Charles Howard "Chuck" Brock Sr.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Stone, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, November 26, 2013, be adjourned in memory of Susan Carol McMullin McCarty, a resident of San Juan Capistrano who will always be remembered for "her love of pottery and working in her studio with the feel of clay between her fingers."

After obtaining a bachelor of education degree in 1966 from Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio, Susan taught elementary education for almost 15 years. When her husband's career took them to different locations including California, Philadelphia, Illinois, Columbus, and Strasbourg, France, Susan "bravely" adapted to each new environment and became active in organizations such as Newcomers, Welcome Wagon, and The Americans in Alsace in Strasbourg. She also co-authored a book titled "Window to Strasbourg": a guide to living in the Alsace. The book now in its sixth edition is a testament to her objective to make relocating to Strasbourg a positive experience for English speaking ex-pats.

Susan was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend whose memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of everyone who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed.
