On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Stone, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 28, 2014, be adjourned in memory of Jack Kent, a 95-year-old resident of Palm Desert and World War II hero who will always be remembered for his "valor, strength, dignity, fairness, and commitment."

Born as "Aleksander Glazewski" on August 5, 1918 in the rural Polish village of Miscovice, Jack and his father opened a café in Nazi-occupied Stalowa Wola called Gastronomia. It was there, during the "dark days" of World War II and the Holocaust, that Jack met Roza (known then as Ziuta Kunstler), a Jewish girl who was incognito and on the run. After hiring her as a waitress and a baker for the cafe, Jack fell in love with her and put his life on the line when he rescued her from certain death at the hands of the Nazis.

When the war ended, Jack and Roza immigrated to the United States where he worked long hours in the restaurant and catering industry to provide for his family. He believed in the American dream, invested wisely, and ultimately amassed a substantial real estate portfolio.

For Jack's heroism, Yad Vashem, the Holocaust authority, awarded him in 2003 with Israel's highest honor, the Righteous Among the Nations Medal. This prestigious event was held at the Simon Wiesenthal Center in Los Angeles with 500 people in attendance.
