SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FROM: Supervisor Kevin Jeffries

SUBMITTAL DATE:
July 22, 2014

SUBJECT: Re-Naming of the Mission Trail Community Library to "Wildomar Library"

RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board of Supervisors:
1. Re-Name the Mission Trail Community Library to officially re-name the library as the "Wildomar Library".

BACKGROUND:
Summary

The Mission Trail branch library opened in 2001, prior to the incorporation of the City of Wildomar in 2008.
In the summer of 2013, the community room was expanded, and the entire branch received a facelift.
The library is active and has been embraced by the City of Wildomar with 152,401 visits and 73,961 items checked out in 2013/2014.

Renaming the library "Wildomar Library" will reflect more accurately the library's identity and provide the residents a public anchor in the City.

Supervisor Jeffries supports the request by the City of Wildomar and the Friends of the Mission Trail Community Library to officially re-name the library as the "Wildomar Library.

Any minor costs associated with the re-naming will be borne by the City or by the Friends of the Mission Trail Community Library.

RE: Change name of Mission Trail Community Library- SUPPORT

Dear Honorable Jeffries,

On behalf of the City of Wildomar, we, the City Council, respectfully request your support in changing the name of the Mission Trail Community Library to Wildomar Library. We are asking your support of this decision for the benefit of those who utilize and refer to this facility.

Mission Trail Library is located at 34303 Mission Trail, Wildomar and is commonly referred to as the "Wildomar Library" by residents, businesses and local media. We do not foresee any major disruptions or costs associated with this request. The only projected cost will be the replacement of 1 sign, business cards, name tags and marketing material.

Mission Trail Library is located in our City and we believe that it should reflect our name for the convenience of our residents, businesses and visitors.

Sincerely,

Marsha Swanson
