BACKGROUND:

Summary (continued)

Given the uncertainty as to when the Governor will act to fill the vacancy and the importance that the constituents of District 3 continued to be served, I am recommending that my colleagues appoint Supervisor Ashley to provide supervisorial oversight of District 3 until the Governor has appointed my successor. Supervisor Ashley knows the District well and will ensure that the issues and concerns of my fine constituents are addressed and addressed well. I am confident that he will be an exceptional steward of the District during this interim period and will allow the business of the District to continue uninterrupted.

Impact on Residents and Businesses

This appointment will positively impact the residents and businesses of District 3 by having a supervisor appointed to provide oversight of the District and ensure that any constituent needs will be addressed during the interim period until the Governor acts on the vacancy.
