

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, April 7, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Harold Holland, a resident of Rancho Mirage, California, who passed away on March 27, 2015.

Harold was born on November 4, 1929 in Scranton, PA to Emanuel and Beatrice Holland. He moved to New York City, N.Y. in 1943 and then relocated to Rhode Island in 1949 where he married Helene Jewett on December 7, 1952. There he started and grew his business, had three children, and lived there until he moved to Indian Wells, CA and then Rancho Mirage.

He served in the U.S. Navy from 1951 to 1954 and was in the Korean War aboard the USS Stephen Potter. Once home from the Korean War, he and his brother Julian founded Art-Mold Products Company in Cranston, R.I. successfully growing the company until it was acquired by a NYSE conglomerate. He was one of four partners of Measured Marketing Services Inc. based in Los Angeles, CA. where he was on the Board of Directors and helped expand MMS internationally. Harold also served on the Board of Directors for Norwood Promotional Products Company of San Antonio, TX and Specialty Advertising Association International. Counselor Magazine named him one of the 50 most influential people of the Advertising Specialty Industry.

Harold belonged to, actively played and actively participated at several clubs over the years. He was a member of Valley Country Club in West Warwick, R.I.; Quidnesset County Club in North Kingstown, R.I., Ledgemont Country Club in Rohoboth, MA, Bermuda Dunes Country Club in Bermuda Dunes, CA and Morningside Country Club in Rancho Mirage. He served on and chaired many committees, and served on the Board of Directors for several Clubs. He played in The Bob Hope Chrysler Classic for 15 years, had six holes-in-one in his career, and had the wonderful distinction (along with Arnold Palmer) of scoring two holes-in-one on the same hole in consecutive rounds at Ledgemont Country Club in 1994. Harold volunteered at Eisenhower Medical Center, served on several fund-raising committees and served on EMC Foundation Board of Governors.

Harold is survived by his wife of 62 years, Helene; sons, Evan (Neesa) Holland of Warwick, R.I., and Gary (Autumn) Holland of Fort Worth, TX; daughter, Judi Holland of Pasadena, CA; grandson, Aaron; and Granddaughter Rachel. He was preceded in death by his parents, Emanuel and Beatrice Holland; brother and his wife, Julian and Simone Holland; sister and her husband, Wilma and Edward Safire; and his niece, Marilyn Holland. Harold's memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Harold Holland.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on April 7, 2015 of Supervisors Minutes.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, April 7, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Edward William Boris, a resident of La Quinta, California, who passed away on March 23, 2015.

Edward was born on May 2, 1923, in Minneapolis, to Susan Chupka Boris and James Boris, both of whom immigrated to the U.S. from Czechoslovakia in 1905 and 1907. The family soon relocated to Holcombe, Wisconsin where "Eddie" spent his childhood growing up on their farm. At the age of 18 he joined the U.S. Marine Corps and served in the Pacific Theatre, including Guadalcanal Island, until he was honorably discharged in June 1944. Three years later, Eddie met Vivian Lynch and they married on February 12, 1949 at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Flambeau, Wisconsin.

Eddie began his career in banking and finance but moved into the tool and die business when the family moved to Southern California in 1961. There he joined his brother, Jim, at Trio Metal Stamping in City of Industry where he served as general manager until his retirement 30 years later in June 1991. Eddie and Vivian retired to La Quinta, California after they sold the house in Walnut, where they had raised their children. There, they joined other long-time friends and made many new ones. Eddie loved the beauty of the desert mountains where he devoted time with his family and friends, volunteering with Vivian at Martha's kitchen and attending St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church.

Eddie was an avid sports fan, he enjoyed music, dancing and reading. He was a generous and kind man. He is survived by his children; Suzanne Chiarchiaro (Anthony), Kathryn Boris-Brown (Gregg), Daniel (Greta Howard), Patricia Boris-Swett (Daniel), William (Kim Palmer), Mary Jo Gomez (Anthony); ten grandchildren; and two great-granddaughters. He was preceded in death by his wife Vivian. Edward's memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Edward William Boris.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, April 7, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Bea Cohen, a resident of Cathedral City, who passed away on January 18, 2015.

Born on October 23, 1922, in Tacoma, Washington, Bea graduated from Garfield High School in Seattle, Washington, and later furthered her education with evening courses, while working to support her mother. She later worked as the office manager of her husband's business and as a dedicated volunteer in support of her Jewish Heritage.

As a young mother Bea volunteered at her synagogue and as her children grew, she spent five years as Religious School Principal and Religious School Chair on the board of Temple Beth Israel, Claremont, California. She was a member of Sisterhood, Luncheon Chair, at Temple Beth Israel for twenty-five years, and a lifetime member of Haddasah. Bea's long volunteer work included twenty-years at Pomona Valley Hospital, seventeen years at Desert Hospital, twenty-five years at Temple Isaiah, Palm Springs, and many years in support of Jewish Family Services. Bea was President of the Palm Springs B'nai B'rith for two years and first Vice President and Chair of the Board for ten years. She was the second woman in California ever to receive the highest award given to a B'nai B'rith member – The Akiba Award for "Distinguished and Outstanding Service to the cause of B'nai B'rith."

Bea started her own book editing/desk top publishing and public secretarial business in 1980, in Cathedral City, California. She was happiest being busy, working, enjoying her family and supporting her Jewish Heritage.

Bea was preceded in death by her first husband, Alex Goodman; her brothers Sam, Burnett and Morris Molin; her mother, Augusta Molin; and her father, Henry Leo Molin. Bea leaves behind her husband, Albert Cohen; her children Michael Goodman, Barbara West and Hillis Rose; three granddaughters and six great-grandchildren. Bea's memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed.
