

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

On motion of Supervisor Ashley, seconded by Supervisor Benoit, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Richard Williamson, a 48-year-old resident of Riverside and security firm owner who was fatally shot while working a New Year's Eve party at the CalSkate Roller Rink in Grand Terrace. He was a true hero whose tragic death comes as a great loss to his family, friends, and an entire community.

Known as "Big Will," Richard founded and owned Big Will's Security Services on Brockton Avenue in Riverside. A mentor to many of his employees, he cared about others and many times offered them work when no one else would.

Richard was a loving and devoted husband, father, and friend whose memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Richard Williamson.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on January 6, 2015 of Supervisors Minutes.

On motion of Supervisor Ashley, seconded by Supervisor Benoit, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Wenjian Liu, a 32-year-old New York Police Officer who, along with his partner Rafael Ramos, was fatally shot in the line of duty on December 20, 2014.

As the only son of Chinese immigrants Wei Tang Liu and Xiu Yan Li, Officer Liu and his family came to the United States from Taishan, Guangdong in China when he was 12 years old. He was a seven-year veteran officer of the New York Police Department and had just married his soulmate Pei Xia Chen in October 2014.

Officer Liu, whom many called "Joe," had a "passion for nature, his family, and for being a New York Police Officer." He was a loving and devoted son, husband, and best friend whose memory and selfless spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of New York Police Officer Wenjian Liu.

On motion of Supervisor Ashley, seconded by Supervisor Benoit, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Rafael Ramos, a 40-year-old New York Police Officer who, along with his partner Wenjian Liu, was fatally shot in the line of duty on December 20, 2014.

Born on December 9, 1974, Officer Ramos was married with two sons and a longtime resident of Glendale, Queens. After joining the New York Police Department as a school safety agent, he was promoted to officer in January 2012.

Active in his church, Christ Tabernacle in Glendale Queens, Officer Ramos had just completed a training course to become a volunteer chaplain and planned to join the ministry fulltime when he retired from the police force. He enjoyed the "spiritual dimension to life and work and felt that he was doing God's work by protecting and serving his community."

Officer Ramos was a loving and devoted husband, father, and friend who will always be remembered for his "smile, kindness, and compassion." His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

On motion of Supervisor Jeffries, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of John F. McAvoy, a 91-year-old longtime resident of Riverside who passed away on December 16, 2014 and will always be remembered for his "honor, integrity, and dignity."

Born on August 1, 1923 in Everett, Massachusetts, John was a proud Veteran of World War II and Korean Conflict, having served in the Navy and Air Force for 21 years. A decorated war hero, he survived action on the USS Franklin CV13 during World War II, where approximately 950 men were killed about 50 miles off Japan on March 19, 1945.

As an active participant in the community, John was a 52-year member of the Knights of Columbus, Council 1638, having served in local and state offices. He was also a 50-year parishioner of St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church, serving in many capacities.

John was a loving husband to his wife Helen of 70 years and a devoted father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Merrien Harmon, 85, who passed away on December 24, 2014, in Palm Desert, California.

Born as Marian Fessler on December 3, 1929 in Geneva, Nebraska, Merrien was a co-founder/coordinator of Mind Motivations and worked for Portola Center until retiring at age 76.

A long list of achievements and accomplishments are attached to her name. As a family abuse activist, along with Oprah Winfrey, Merrien raised money to open Shelter from the Storm battered women's shelter in Coachella Valley. She was a vice president of American Business Womens Association and ABWA's Woman of the Year in 1988. In 1989, she was honored by Soroptimist Club with the Women Helping Women Award.

Active as she can be, she also was president of the Women's Press Club and president of the Trendsetters Chapter of Palm Desert.

Merrien is survived by daughters Kathy and Karen, brother Duane Fessler, five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Her memory and service will continue to linger. She will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Charles William Williams, a longtime resident of Palm Desert, California, who passed away at the age of 86.

Described as calm, fair-minded, and cool-headed, with a wonderful sense of humor, Charles was a successful newspaper publisher in the Chicago area. He was the publisher/owner of the Star Publications in Chicago Heights, along with his brother William. He led the Star to become one of the largest suburban newspapers in the country. He also served as president of the Cook County Publisher's Association and on the board of the First National Bank in Chicago Heights.

After selling the newspaper in 1986, he and his wife moved to the Desert. They travelled the world, joined the Lakes Country Club, Indian Wells Country Club and Indian Ridge, or simply lunched out with friends and took his dogs for long walks. He also devoted himself to writing, completing novels and a children's book.

Charles lived an active lifestyle and enjoyed life to the fullest with his soulmate and best friend Diane. He will always be remembered and dearly missed.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Katie Avila Hernandez. Katie passed away on December 29, 2014. She was 76.

Katie was born on September 24, 1938 in Indio, California, to Juan and Maria Avila, pioneers who settled in the Coachella Valley in the early 1900s. She married Nasario Hernandez on November 24, 1956.

A person of deep faith, she realized the importance of nourishing her spiritual life not only through prayer, but service to others. The death of an older brother during the Korean War has instilled in her a deep love for her country and all those who serve.

She was a strong, hardworking, patriotic woman, and an ardent supporter of women's rights. She also worked to organize the Coachella Valley Voters League. Most of all, her deep love for her family will always be remembered by those she left behind.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of a very distinguished and accomplished man. Harvey Raymond Gerber passed away on December 17, 2014 after a long battle with cancer, before he succumbed to the disease at the age of 80, leaving his wife of 37 years, Angie Gerber.

Harvey, a lawyer and former Mayor of Rancho Mirage, was born on June 12, 1934 in Chicago, Illinois. When he was 9, his family moved to Los Angeles where he spent his formative years. He served in Air/Sea Rescue in Korea, then went back to school and graduated from USC Law School in 1961.

From small firms to larger firms, he eventually ventured into his own practice where he spent majority of his career in law, including numerous high-profile cases. He relished the excitement of being in trial and was often called on to serve as Judge Pro Tem in Orange County.

In 1994, he and his wife relocated to Rancho Mirage, where two years later, he retired from practice. Not one to sit idle, nor just play golf, he felt he had more to contribute. He decided to run for and ultimately won a seat in Rancho Mirage City Council, then became the mayor of the city from 2002-2003.

Harvey has always been active in the community. He served on the Board of Trustees for the Palm Springs Art Museum, Board of Directors for the Stroke Recovery Center, and as a board member for the McCallum Theater. He also volunteered his time and mentored youths in the program through the Art Museum.

Stubborn, kind, and generous, Harvey found his way around any objection with creativity and passion. He placed great importance on giving back to his community and finding solutions. His amazing strength and perseverance will always be remembered by his family and friends. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Ronald Eugene Holmes, who passed away at the age of 74 in his home in Palm Springs.

Ron was a longtime resident, and truly a son of West Covina, California. He attended and graduated from West Covina schools, joined the West Covina Police Department in 1961, and eventually became the department's Chief of Police. He earned his B.S. degree from California State University of Los Angeles and his Masters of Public Administration from the University of La Verne.

His calm, diplomatic, and effective leadership style has been repeatedly praised by city and law enforcement leaders as well as those who worked with him over his 32-year career. His character is a true epitome of that of a "Peace Officer".

In retirement, Ron relocated to Palm Springs with his wife Linda. The couple's home was always filled with guests. They also travelled extensively and were familiar guests at many wineries.

At Ron's request, there will be no funeral services. He suggested that everyone enjoy a glass of "really good wine" in his memory. And, to his many longtime and loyal friends, Ron would say, "Happy trails to you, until we meet again."

He later completed a master's degree in mathematics from Stanford University and an Ed.D. in education from Berkeley.

In 1952, Len married Katherine (Kay) Chesney who became his partner for 62 years. He also dedicated his career to K-12 and postsecondary education, working as a teacher, principal, associate dean of education and superintendent. He served in many leadership positions in education associations, including chairman of the Association of California School Administrators and coordinator of the ACSA International Conference.

Len and his wife Kay retired to Palm Desert in year 2000. He enjoyed extensive travels around the world and took great pleasure in golf, dancing, jazz, art and theater.

Survived by his wife, son, daughters and grandchildren, Len will be remembered most for his infinite love, generosity, humor, wit and compassion. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Leonard Herbst.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Daniel Robert Updyke, of Palm Desert, who passed away on November 19, 2014. He was 66 years of age.

Daniel and his twin sister Julie Anne were born on September 25, 1948 in Fullerton, California. Throughout his life, Daniel had been very active in sports, playing football and baseball and even when he worked at Coast Pontiac, he spent every free moment on the golf course. He was drafted and spent two years as an Army sergeant during the Vietnam War. Upon his return he continued to work in the auto industry and became the general manager of Frahm Dodge in Norco, California.

A longtime member of the Indian Wells Country Club where he won the club championship one year, Dan carried his passion for golf throughout the rest of his life.

Daniel was honored by a gathering of close friends and family in a private family service. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of June L. Wilde Marra, who passed away on November 24, 2014 at the age of 91.

Born in Scobey, Montana on April 3, 1923 to a musical family, June pursued piano lessons as a young child. In 1944, she married her first husband Robert R. Wilde and spent most of their 53 years of marriage in Northern California. Upon his death in 1997, June moved to Great Falls, Montana at the age of 74. Shortly thereafter, she married Joseph R. Marra in 1999.

June had performed in San Francisco and around the Bay Area as an accomplished concert pianist and music teacher. She also enjoyed composing poetry for Christmas cards and sewing clothes for family and friends. While continuing her music, she realized her dream of completing her Bachelor of Arts Degree at the University of Great Falls in August 2002, and at the age of 79, she earned the honor of the oldest graduate from the university. June continued playing her piano for musical groups and school events, expanded her sewing skills, and started quilting with the PDQ Quilt Club where she received top honors for her quilts.

A passionate spirit who is loving and devoted to everyone and everything she touches, the memory of June R. Wilde Marra will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of June L. Wilde Marra.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of John Robert Bacon, who lost his battle with cancer on December 4, 2014, at the age of 75.

Born on July 19, 1939, John grew up in St. Louis where he attended Christian Brothers College High School and later, St. Louis University. A veteran of the United States Air Force, John began his career in Detroit within the automotive industry. He eventually relocated to southern California where he had a successful career in the natural gas vehicle market. Last November, John received the Lifetime Achievement Award from NGV America in recognition of the impact he made in furthering natural gas vehicles in the U.S. Within this industry, John took the helm of Dallas-based BAF Technologies and grew the startup into the largest NGV conversion company in the country. He then led the sale of the company to Clean Energy Fuels where he worked until his passing.

Golf was a passion for John and he was an active member in several country clubs. On these greens and fairways he leaves behind many unbelievable shots, wonderful friends, quality cigars and two holes in one.

John also leaves behind the love of his life, Teri Bacon, his wife of more than 25 years. He is also survived by his daughters Julie and Jennifer.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of John Robert Bacon.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Joseph L. Darr, M.D., who passed away on October 31, 2014.

Born on May 1, 1933 in the town of Cumberland, Maryland, "Joe" came from a sturdy Catholic roots that traced back to County Galway, Ireland. At St. Mary's Elementary where he was enrolled, he was the parish's most dedicated altar boys. In the first grade, he fell in love with Lois Nehring, who dazzled him with her ability to play the piano and the violin. This sweet, shy and talented kind-hearted girl became his bride in 1956 and for the next 58 years, the couple's blissful marriage was blessed with three children.

A man of devout faith, he believed that his life's calling was in the healing service of others. He attended medical school at the University of Maryland in Baltimore and upon graduation in 1959, Joe was selected to serve in the Medical Internship Program with the U.S. Army Office of the Surgeon General where he began his military career.

His life had been richly decorated with accomplishments and success. From being Vice President and Valedictorian of his senior class, to being one of the first surgeons in the country to perform intraocular lens implantation in cataract surgery, Dr. Darr achieved numerous titles and accolades both personally and professionally.

Joe was also known for his sense of humor. Friends and family were forever entertained by his ability to recite jokes and limericks on a whim, and by his talent for belting out Irish folk songs with baritone gusto. He also was a prolific writer, a keen political cartoonist and a talented painter. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Joseph L. Darr, M.D.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 6, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Helen Sarchet Hamilton, 88, who passed away peacefully on November 30, 2014.

Born on September 22, 1926 in Denver, Colorado, Helen resided in Palm Springs for sixty years and has resided in La Quinta for four years. She was employed by Palm Springs Unified School District in 1963 and taught grades 1-4 at Cathedral City and Desert Hot Springs elementary schools until her retirement in 1989. In 1970, Helen completed her master's degree in education from Claremont College.

Helen was one of the founding members of the Unitarian Universalist Church of the Coachella Valley. She was an avid ceramic artist and a worldwide traveler who had visited Africa, China, Europe, Australia and the Pacific Islands. Her love of travel, arts, music, writing and a zest for life are things she fondly shared with her three children, family and many friends.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.
